Campbell, Alan Dent, 1952     Bernard Shaw and Mrs. (Beatrice Stella) Patrick Campbell Bernard Shaw, 1952     Bernard Shaw A. M. Gibbs, 2005-11-23 Bernard Shaw fashioned public images of himself that belied the nature and depth of his emotional experiences and the complexity of his intellectual outlook In this absorbing biography noted Shavian authority A M Gibbs debunks many of the elements that form the foundation of Shaw's self-created legend from his childhood which was not the loveless experience he claimed publicly to his sexual relationships with several women to his marriage his politics his Irish identity and his controversial philosophy of Creative Evolution Drawing on previously unpublished materials including never before seen photographs and early sketches by Shaw Gibbs offers a fresh perspective and brings us closer than ever before to the human being behind the masks     Dear Liar Jerome Kilty, Bernard Shaw, 1960     Dear Liar Jerome Kilty, 1960 The play is based on the longtime correspondence between British playwright George Bernard Shaw and British actress Mrs Patrick Campbell     Shakespeare's Women and the Fin de Siècle Sophie Duncan, 2016-12-01 Shakespeare's Women and the Fin de Siècle illuminates the most iconoclastic performances of Shakespeare's heroines in late Victorian theatre through the celebrity commentary and wider careers of the actresses who played them By bringing together fin de siècle performances of Shakespeare and contemporary Victorian drama for the first time this book illuminates the vital ways in which fin de siècle Shakespeare and contemporary Victorian theatre culture conditioned each other Actresses' movements between Shakespeare and fin de siècle roles reveal the collisions and unexpected consonances between apparently independent areas of the fin de siècle repertory Performances including Ellen Terry's Lady Macbeth Madge Kendal's Rosalind and Lillie Langtry's Cleopatra illuminate fin de siècle Shakespeare's lively intersections with cultural phenomena including the Jack the Ripper killings

Aestheticism the suicide craze and the rise of metropolitan department stores If as previous studies have shown Shakespeare was everywhere in Victorian culture Sophie Duncan explores the surprising ways in which late Victorian culture from Dracula to pornography and from Ruskin to the suffragettes inflected Shakespeare Via a wealth of unpublished archival material Duncan reveals women s creative networks at the fin de si cle and how Shakespearean performance traditions moved between actresses via little studied performance genealogies At the same time controversial new stage business made fin de si cle Shakespeare as much a crucible for debates over gender roles and sexuality as plays by Ibsen and Shaw Increasingly actresses creative networks encompassed suffragist activists who took personal inspiration from star Shakespearean actresses From a Salome esque Juliet to a feminist Paulina fin de si cle actresses created cultural legacies which Shakespeare in performance still negotiates today The Last Romantic John Hall Wheelock,Matthew Joseph Brucoli,Judith Baughman,2002 Wheelock s 1886 1978 memoir is based on tape recorded interviews conducted in 1967 for the Oral History Research Office at Columbia U with Wheelock s stipulation that they not be used until January 1 1990 In addition to his writing of poetry as a schoolboy and a Harvard apprenticeship the text covers his career as a poet his friendships with a wide range of literary figures and the 46 years spent at Charles Scribner s Sons as an editor who assisted and then succeeded Maxwell Perkins as editor in chief Brucoli English U of S Carolina is considered the leading authority on the House of Scribner and its authors Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Bernard Shaw: 1950-1991, the last laugh Michael Holroyd,1988 The Literary Digest International Book Review Clifford Smyth,1923
