Bruce Chatwin Nicholas Murray, 1995      Bruce Chatwin Nicholas Murray, 1993      Borderlines, 1997      AIDS Narratives Steven F. Kruger, 2013-10-28 This is the first book length study of the rich fiction that has emerged from the AIDS crisis Examining first the ways in which scientific discourse on AIDS has reflected ideologies of gender and sexuality such as the construction of AIDS as a disease of gay men part of a battle over masculinity and thus largely excluding women with AIDS from public attention the book considers how such discourses have shaped narrative understandings of AIDS On the one hand AIDS is seen as an invariably fatal weakening of an individual's bodily defenses a depiction often used to reconfirm an identification between disease and a weak and vulnerable gayness On the other hand AIDS is understood in terms of an epidemic attributable to gay immorality or unnaturalness The fiction of AIDS depends upon these two narratives with one major subgenre of AIDS novel presenting narratives of personal illness decline and death and a second focusing on epidemic spread These novels also question the narrative structures upon which they depend intervening particularly against the homophobia of those structures though also sometimes reinforcing it      Travel Writing Casey Blanton, 2002 Traces travel writing's evolution from classical times to the present focusing on Anglo American work since the eighteenth century Examines texts by James Boswell Mary Kingsley Graham Greene Peter Mathiessen Naipaul and Chatwin      Writer's Handbook 2000 Barry Turner, 1999 Over 500 entries tap every vein of opportunity in book and magazine publishing newspapers poetry radio theatre TV video and film as well as giving information on agents prizes writers circles associations festivals and much much more      The Writer's Handbook 2007 Barry Turner, 2006 Completely revised and updated with newly commissioned articles the 20th anniversary edition of The Writer's Handbook is an indispensable companion for everyone in the writing profession Containing over 6 000 entries covering every area of writing with provocative articles and useful advice from leading representatives of the trade this practical straightforward guide provides full details on the core markets In addition to the key areas of UK and US book publishers agents magazines screenwriting theater and poetry writer's courses and circles festivals and grants and prizes the guide also offers invaluable expert advice on contracts copyright and taxation      Henry Vaughan Stevie Davies, 1995 There is no portrait of Metaphysical poet Henry Vaughan 1621-95 and little documentation of his life However at the tercentenary of his death his writing remains as influential as ever and the writer continues to fascinate Stevie Davies uses her skills as a novelist and critic to bring to life her now distant subject      The Writer's Handbook, 2001      Edward Elgar John Allison, 1994 Edward Elgar was for many years the most popular composer in Britain his music was and remains inextricably linked with the final glorious years of the Empire Yet Elgar himself was almost entirely untypical of the British Establishment Born a shopkeeper's son part of an active Catholic family and community Elgar struggled for many years against the prejudices his background raised in music circles Ironically composition for the Anglican Church was an important early platform for Elgar and it is through the sacred music that this pioneering study approaches his life and work It traces the development of a composer whose work was criticised for its Catholic overtones yet who was knighted and the recipient of numerous professorships John Allison weaves biography composition and religion as never before to produce a necessary and illuminating new work In addition to surveying the sacred music much of it for the first time he gives an invaluable listing of the works their scoring and first production John Allison is the assistant editor of Opera magazine and contributes music criticism to the Financial Times W.H. Elizabeth Barrett Browning Barbara Dennis, 1996 Barbara Dennis's much needed study provides a new and illuminating perspective on Barrett Browning focusing on her crucial early years at Hope End near Ledbury Drawing on previously neglected material from Barrett Browning's diaries and her unpublished notebook of 1822-1824 Dennis reveals an active and inquisitive young woman delighting in exploring the Herefordshire countryside and often critical of authority A precocious poet Elizabeth published her first poem The Battle of Marathon at fourteen her second poem An Essay on Mind brought her critical recognition and friendships that were to remain important to her throughout her life including that with Hugh Boyd for whom she developed an intense infatuation But Elizabeth's life at Hope End was not only one of books we learn of her love for her family especially her brother Bro whose tragic early death made it too painful for her ever to return to Hope End after the family's move to London and her early happy relationship with her father who affectionately dubbed her the Poet Laureate of Hope End and encouraged her ambition
