Beale,2016-10-12 Excerpt from History of the Ninth Virginia Cavalry in the War Between the States The following narrative of the operations of the Ninth Virginia Cavalry during the Civil War was written by the late brigadier general R L T Beale their old commander in 1865 It was found among his papers at his death on April 17 1893 written upon the consecutive pages of a thin blank book It has been carefully copied and arranged in chapters with headings to indicate their contents As full and accurate a roster of the regiment as it has been possible to obtain has been added It has been possible to secure only a very imperfect list of the casualties If this record of the regiment had been commensurate with the admiration and affection in which the author held its officers and men it would have been far more extended than it is Comparatively few of the veterans whose names appear on these pages now survive The narrative will however interest their children and perhaps many others who cherish the record of Southern devotion and valor as displayed by the daring horsemen who wielded the sabre and followed the plumes of Stuart Hampton and the Lees About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The Battle of Gettysburg 1863 (3) Timothy Orr, 2024-08-15 An authoritative and superbly illustrated exploration of the events of July 3 1863 incorporating new interpretations that have arisen in the past two decades The third day of the Battle of Gettysburg was the most dramatic of the three Among the iconic clashes that took place was the 12 500 man attack known as Pickett's Charge General Lee's last assault at Gettysburg in which his soldiers suffered over 60 percent losses Other key moments of the day were the action at Culp's Hill arguably where the outcome of the battle was decided the engagement at East Cavalry Field the two hour artillery duel and the Union counterattack at the south end of the battlefield This final volume in Timothy J Orr's trilogy emphasizes the tactical decisions of Day Three and documents the ensuing combat in detailed 2D maps 3D diagrams and historic photographs It also includes a brief summary of the strategic and human consequences of the campaign carrying the story to November 19 1863 the day of Lincoln's famed Gettysburg Address Primary accounts from common soldiers infuse this study reminding readers that Gettysburg was among other things a tale of suffering and endurance The experiences and equipment of these men are brought to life in stunning detail in Steve Noon's dramatic battlescenes

The Battle of Gettysburg 1863 (1) Timothy Orr, 2022-03-17 This first volume of three discusses the tactical decisions made on day one and the ensuing combat while also including a brief summary of the grand strategy in the Eastern Theater of the war the conduct of the Pennsylvania Campaign from June 6 to 30 1863 and the plight of civilians caught up in the conflict The Battle of Gettysburg which took place July 1-3 1863 in and around the town of Gettysburg PA resulted in the largest number of casualties of the entire American Civil War and is seen as the key turning point in the conflict On its first day Confederate General Robert E Lee's Army of Northern Virginia sought to destroy the Union army forcing its men to retreat through the streets of the Pennsylvania town to the hills just to the south This volume the first of three to cover the battle in depth includes the morning cavalry skirmish the morning clash at the Herbst's Woodlot and at the railroad cut the afternoon clash at Oak Ridge the afternoon fight at the Edward McPherson farm the afternoon rout of the 11th Corps the last stand of the 1st Corps at Seminary Ridge the Union retreat through town and the positions of the armies at nightfall

Memoirs of the Stuart Horse Artillery Battalion Robert J. Trout, 2008 Until recently it has been difficult for anyone with an interest in the Army of Northern Virginia's horse artillery which served under legendary cavalry commander J E B Stuart to envision what the men of the battalion endured With the publication in 2002 of Robert Trout's seminal book Galloping Thunder The Stuart Horse Artillery Battalion the endeavors of the unit were rescued from obscurity In Memoirs of the Stuart Horse Artillery Battalion Trout provides readers with complete versions of three important primary documents written by soldiers of the battalion Lt Lewis T Nunnelee's history of Moorman's Battery is based on a seven volume diary that Nunnelee kept during the war and features near daily entries of the battery's actions The History of Hart's Battery as told by Maj James F Hart Dr Levi C Stephens Louis Sherfesee and Charles H Schwing is as Trout puts it a cannon of a different caliber It recounts in broader terms the battery s history from its inception before the war to its surrender as the last horse artillery in the field The authors offer rare glimpses into the development of tactics learned from the school of the battlefield Finally Louis Sherfesees Reminiscences of A Color Bearer fleshes out many of the stories in the history that he co wrote with Hart and his fellow soldiers Filled with short vignettes it offers a behind the scenes look at the battery in action Together these rich documents provide welcome insights into the day to day experiences of the often overlooked Confederate horse artillery which played an important role in cementing Stuart s reputation as one of the most outstanding cavalry commanders in the Civil War Book Jacket The Burial of Latane ,1914 The Maryland

Campaign of September 1862 Joseph Pierro,2012-08-21 Completed in the early 1900s The Maryland Campaign of September 1862 is still the essential source for anyone seeking understanding of the bloodiest day in all of American history As the U S War Department s official expert on the Battle of Antietam Ezra Carman corresponded with and interviewed hundreds of other veterans from both sides of the conflict to produce a comprehensive history of the campaign that dashed the Confederacy s best hope for independence and ushered in the Emancipation Proclamation Nearly a century after its completion Carman s manuscript has finally made its way into print in an attractively packaged one volume edition painstakingly edited annotated and indexed by Joseph Pierro This edition the first to publish the entire Carman manuscript including the fifteen appendices is designed for ease of use with standardized punctuation and spelling and conveniently footnoted explanations wherever necessary The Maryland Campaign of September 1862 is a crucial document for anyone interested in delving below the surface of the military campaign that forever altered the course of American history and is still the only complete edition of Carman s work on the market Due to an unfortunate case of mistaken identity the man currently appearing in the frontispiece of The Maryland Campaign of September 1862 is not the actual Ezra Carman but someone who looks remarkably similar to him The real Mr Carman can be found at <http://www.loc.gov/pictures/item/cwp2003001783> PP We apologize for the mistake and will correct this error in further printings The Biographical
