The House of Difference Eva Mackey, 2002-01-01 Mackey argues that official policies and attitudes of multicultural tolerance for others reinforce the dominant Anglo Canadian culture by abducting the cultures of minority groups This is How Love Works , Complexity, Difference and Identity Paul Cilliers, Rika Preiser, 2010-06-29 Complexity has been part of the academic discourse for a decade or two Texts on Complexity fall mainly in two categories fairly technical and mathematical on the one hand and fairly broad vague and general on the other Paul Cilliers book Complexity and Postmodernism Understanding Complex Systems Routledge 1998 constituted an attempt to bridge this divide by reflecting more rigorously on the philosophical implications of complexity and by making it accessible to the social sciences This edited volume is a continuation of this project with specific reference to the ethical implications of acknowledging complexity These issues are pertinent to our understanding of organisations and institutions and could contribute significantly to the development of a richer understanding of ethics in business and would be a useful tool for teachers researchers and post graduate students with ethical concerns in disciplines ranging from Philosophy Applied Ethics Sociology Organisational Studies Political Science Anthropology and Cultural Studies The central theme which binds all the contributions together is the inevitability of normative and ethical issues when dealing with complex phenomena The book should thus be useful in the development of Business Ethics on two levels in the first place on the level of developing a strong theoretical foundation in the second place in providing specific examples of this theory in action in the real world

The Chief Points of Difference Between the Catholic and Protestant Creeds F. Laun,1915

Racisms in a Multicultural Canada Augie Fleras,2014-04-29 In acknowledging the possibility that as the world changes so too does racism this book argues that racism is not disappearing despite claims of living in a post racial and multicultural world To the contrary racisms persist by transforming into different forms whose intent or effects remain the same to deny and disallow as well as to exclude and exploit Racisms in a Multicultural Canada is organized around the assumption that race is not simply a set of categories and that racism is not just a collection of individuals with bad attitudes Rather racism is as much a matter of interests as of attitudes of property as of prejudice of structural advantage as of personal failing of whiteness as of the other of discourse as of discrimination and of unequal power relations as of bigotry This multi dimensionality of racism complicates the challenge of formulating anti racism and anti colonialist strategies capable of addressing it Employing a critical framework that puts politics and power at the centre of analysis this book focuses on why racisms proliferate how they work in contemporary societies and how the way we think and talk about racism changes over time Specifically it examines the working of contemporary racisms in a multicultural Canada that claims to abide by principles of multiculturalism and a commitment to a post racial society
