Making Our Way to Shore Eileen O'Farrell, 2004 Since 1991 members of the Jewish Catholic Couples Dialogue Group in Chicago have celebrated a combination Hebrew Baby Naming and Baptism ceremony as they welcome their children into the world with the support and participation of a Catholic Priest and Reform Rabbi These ceremonies are spiritual moments created in the spirit of finding new pathways for interfaith families to share in their religious traditions For some couples their ceremony makes a statement about the religious identity of their child either in one tradition or another For others it is an expression of thanks to God for new life and the wish to ask for God s blessing on their family In either case the celebration is an authentic manifestation of a Divine presence in their new family In addition to the ceremony this text

includes an overview of the current literature regarding Catholic Jewish families a review of Hebrew Rites of Initiation as well as a short course on Catholic sacramentality and Baptism commonly asked questions and answers facing Catholic Jewish couples a lively conversation between a Rabbi and a Priest regarding rites of initiation a resource section of books and websites and a closing chapter on topics of family faith formation

The Parent Survival Guide Theresa Kellam, 2011-02-14 When parents turn to the parenting self help section of their local bookstore they are looking for both practical guidance and a childrearing philosophy that resonates with them an approach they can relate to and be comfortable implementing in their own household In The Parent Survival Guide From Chaos to Harmony in Ten Weeks or Less Theresa Kellam presents a way to strengthen the relationship with the child that simultaneously promotes the parent's own emotional healing and wellness. Grounded in a research-supported therapeutic technique that uses structured play time as the catalyst for interpersonal connection and growth, Kellam's model is subtle in its simplicity. Through a series of guided exercises, Kellam gives parents the skills they need to begin to set aside special playtimes with their children during which the most important part of the process is simply being there in a way that promotes healing, growth, and communication. The beauty of this approach is that in only 30 minutes once a week, the results can be seen in only a few weeks. Features of the book include Parent Survival Tip at the start of each chapter. Original cartoon illustrations bring text to life. Short but insightful worksheet questions bring focus to the program. The Parent Survival Guide is structured over a series of 10 chapters which can be read in conjunction with the 10 sessions of the CPRT workshops for those parents enrolled in a formal filial training program. But the material in the book is designed to be read and implemented by anyone. The author is not only a licensed psychologist and filial therapist but she has also gone through the program with her own son and continues to rely on its principles within her family.

Connecting with Kids Through Stories Melissa Nichols, Denise B. Lacher, Joanne C. May, Todd Nichols, 2011-12-15 This is an accessible guide to using therapeutic stories to help connect with troubled adopted children. It demonstrates how parents and professionals can create their own stories to help children heal and explains the theory behind the therapy. This second edition includes updated research and full sample stories.

Multiple Literacies Theory, 2009-01-01 The essays in this book think through and with Deleuzian concepts in the educational field. The resultant encounters between concepts such as multiplicity, becoming habit and affect, and Multiple Literacies Theory exemplify philosophically inspired and productive thinking. Paul Patton, Professor of Philosophy, University of New South Wales.
