Asking for the Moon Reginald Hill, 2019-10-29 Four novellas in the outstanding procedural series exploring the past and future of this pair of Yorkshire police detectives Marilyn Stasio. The New York Times Book Review: British investigators Dalziel and Pascoe have been praised as witty, intelligent, two of the more interesting police detectives in modern crime fiction. Publishers Weekly: In this collection their Diamond Dagger Award-winning creator presents four imaginative tales featuring the duo. The first story explores the chilling start of the Dalziel and Pascoe partnership. In another, they investigate the fate of a woman no one has seen for a year except her brother who claims he is being haunted by her ghost. Then the detectives keep vigil at an isolated farmhouse waiting to see what is making things go bump in the night. Finally, we jump in time to the twenty-first century and the partners' last case: the first man murdered on the moon. Reginald Hill is a mystery writer who is also a very good novelist. He uses the police procedural format to get at something deeper than the solution of a crime. Hill can capture a moment, an emotion, or a character with the stroke of a few words. The Washington Post Book World: One Small Step Reginald Hill, 2019-04-30 It's murder on the moon in an out-of-this-world mystery featuring the best detective duo on the scene. Daily Telegraph: Reginald Hill raised the classical British mystery to new heights when he introduced pugnacious Yorkshire Det. Inspector Andrew Dalziel and his partner, the callow Sgt Peter Pascoe. The New York Times Book Review: Their chafing differences in education, manners, technique, and temperament made them the most remarkable duo in the annals of crime fiction. Toronto Star: Adapted into a long-running hit show for the BBC, the Gold Dagger Award-winning series is now available as ebooks. When astronaut Emile Lemarque takes an accidental and televised fatal fall from his lunar module, he stirs up more than moon dust. It's the far-flung future, and Peter Pascoe, now UK Commissioner in the Eurofed, believes Emile has made history as the first man to be murdered on the moon. How can Pascoe prove it was sabotage when the six-person crew of the Europa agrees it was just a tragic systems failure? By bringing his old mentor Andrew Dalziel out of retirement to help him. Shooting for the moon, they embark on an investigation with international consequences. This time they must do it nearly three hundred million miles from home. One Small Step is the 13th book in the Dalziel and Pascoe Mysteries, but you may enjoy reading the series in any order.
