Memory and Confession in Middle English Literature Kisha G. Tracy, 2017-05-06 This book argues that the traditional relationship between the act of confessing and the act of remembering is manifested through the widespread juxtaposition of confession and memory in Middle English literary texts and furthermore that this concept permeates other manifestations of memory as written by authors in a variety of genres This study through the framework of confession identifies moments of recollection within the texts of four major Middle English authors Langland Chaucer Gower and the

Gawain Poet and demonstrates that these authors deliberately employed the devices of recollection and forgetfulness in order to indicate changes or the lack thereof both in conduct and in mindset in their narrative subjects Memory and Confession in Middle English Literature explores memory's connection to confession along with the recurring textual awareness of confession's ability to transform the soul demonstrating that memory and recollection is used in medieval literature to emphasize emotional and behavioral change
