A Tapestry Of Tales:

A Tapestry of Tales William Guild,1923 Tapestry Tales Robert Bramwell-Jones/Kulov,2017-02-10 This hard cover version of Tapestry Tales contains stories that delight and entertain both children and adults alike With charm and imagination the adventures in them take the reader to places as far apart as the mountains of Switzerland the peaks in the Californian desert and the volcanoes on the islands of Hawaii Enter an enchanted space Between The Worlds Of The World where art reigns supreme children are heroes and art loving dragons are real A world where the mystery of a disappearing mosaic is solved a tapestry escapes destruction by fire and a magical dress of flowers is saved from being destroyed THE STORY BEHIND THE BOOK Tapestry Tales is essentially an art book in the form of a children s story book It contains art and stories created from 2006 to 2014 for a group of children in The Netherlands and the United States who are part of the Tante Kulov Art Fund project As the book s introduction describes in detail stories were not part of the original project But after the art intended for the first two children of the art fund goes missing Robert Bramwell Jones the London based artist commissioned to create the art writes a whimsical explanation of how it disappears In the story he introduces the reoccurring characters of the friendly art loving Draga Dragons who simply love to steal art Tapestry Tales represents the first phase of the Tante Kulov Art Fund project During these eight years the stories get longer and more elaborate New characters start popping up as well Of course each tale revolves around as well as incorporates the personality and interests of each of the children in the fund but the stories are also universal The theme of the importance and value of art and culture is constant throughout ART MAKES CHILDREN POWERFUL The Tapestry of Tales Cathy O'Neill,2023-03-07 Cia Anderson starts eighth grade desperate to fit in but is drawn back into the world of magic and fairy tales when she discovers the Evil Queen s latest scheme and sets off on a cross continental adventure A Tapestry of Tales Linda Amitrani-Naldrett,2025-01-22 Life is an extraordinary journey a tapestry woven with countless events memories experiences and emotions that shape our identity and define who we are Some of these moments are woven and connected by words given by the heart to be revealed in such a way as to share with others a visual picture of a journey trod on the path of our destiny Words are the wool on which the thread is spun the loom on which the story is told A Tapestry of Tales is a compilation of poems and short stories whose subject matter spans many years before our time to the present and beyond They are love stories about people and places relationships with God and His spirit aha moments and secrets never before revealed As in all love stories one expects to see the ups and downs the bumps and bruises and the shattered dreams that some may heal from and others may just move on Some are funny some will make you say to yourself Boy have I been there Done that You will cry you will laugh and many words will make you think back on your own life s experiences with fond memories These are stories of lessons learned through the grace of God poems spoken to and about loved ones and words that portray every emotion and feeling expressed by the human condition A woolen tapestry begins with colorful threads a loom to weave and willing hands to follow the design of the image first created in the mind Our lives are truly a tapestry a weaving of shapes sizes colors gifts and talents that proclaim the beauty of God s creation and His people God weaves His own tapestry according to a specific purpose to tell the story of His love and glory across time Each story and poem in A Tapestry of Tales reflects the love of God either directly or indirectly in the words used to tell the story The captured words on these pages are set free to soar across landscapes of the mind and emotion evoking images imagined or true A Tapestry of Tales Nicholas Guildford,1923
