A Breast For Life:

A Breast for Life Betty Isaac,1974 Another Chance at Life Leonore H. Dvorkin,2010-05-11 In 1998 at the age of 52 I had breast cancer and a left side mastectomy That was my eighth major operation but my first for the treatment of a life threatening disease Almost immediately after the operation I became aware that there were unexpected benefits to be reaped from this experience benefits which ended up changing my life and many of my attitudes Eventually I decided to write a book detailing those many benefits and my thoughts on a variety of topics related to health health care self image and the value of courage and optimism in the face of adversity Surviving breast cancer left me a happier calmer more focused and more appreciative person Now my principal message to other women is that breast cancer does not have to be an entirely negative terror inducing experience On the contrary it can leave them better off than they were before both physically and emotionally I know because it happened to me My book is primarily the story of that physical and emotional journey The five appendices offer a wealth of practical information on risk factors for breast cancer ways to help prevent it and much more
