Many professional women intuit that male colleagues whose spouse handle for them the details of everyday life are favored in the workplace Blair Loy confirms this intuition and shows us how it happens She captures how the cultural schemas of family devotion and work devotion contribute to the reproduction of gender inequality and how meeting the demands of a husband's job and other people's needs push professional women to progressively abandon their work to take care of others Her analysis also gives us hope by comparing the fate of pre and post baby boomers This is both an important scholarly contribution and a book that will help readers think differently about their lives It should be required reading for professional women who aspire to maintain multidimensional lives

Michelle Lamont author of The Dignity of Working Men Morality and the Boundaries of Race Class and Immigration This is a fascinating book with an important message Blair Loy's findings are surprising She challenges conventional viewpoints She is on to something really new when she writes about not only the interplay between cultural norms and individual actions and institutional structures but on the cultural schemas that evoke deep emotional resonances

An outstanding book Cynthia Fuchs Epstein author of Deceptive Distinctions Sex Gender and the Social Order Mary Blair Loy's book transcends old debates about work and family by examining the women who have beaten the odds and risen to the top Her detailed examination of careers and strategies perfectly complements her subtle analysis of the schemas and visions these women have for their lives Blair Loy has given us not only a splendid view into a little known world but also a new way of understanding the dynamic interplay of work and family Looking beyond the static conflict we have studied so much she shows how creative women put traditional schemas of family and work into a mutual transformation to build for themselves a new and more livable world

Andrew Abbott author of Time Matters Wilderness of Unemployment Brian Eckard, 2022-01-31 Are you struggling to find a job Are you discouraged in your job hunt In Wilderness of Unemployment Brian shares his experience and struggles while searching for a permanent job for over two years He shares valuable lessons learned and thirty days of devotions to keep you connected to God A project manager former corporate trainer and technical writer Brian Eckard shares his compelling story of losing a job that he loved and his struggle to support his family during this challenging time Through stories and humor he brings you along on his journey to land a permanent job as he follows Jesus resolving not to accept anything less than God's best He shows you how God was with him even in his darkest moments guiding his footsteps and helping him rise from the ashes of defeat to the job He had for him In these pages you'll learn how to do the following Walk by faith so you can remove the mountain of unemployment and avoid fear Work in partnership with God as He guides you to your blessing Walk in love so you stay connected to God who causes you to produce fruit Immerse yourself in God's Word and gain His strength with thirty days of devotions Trust and believe God as your source and provider for everything you need

Career Quakes L Renee Reeves, 2025-11-03 When the ground shakes where do you stand Life doesn't always go as planned Jobs change roles disappear doors close and the storms of uncertainty leave us wondering where God is in the middle of it all Career Quakes is a devotional for anyone navigating transition loss or the unknown in their career or calling Through honest reflections personal stories and powerful scripture you'll discover that the earthquakes and storms you've faced aren't signs of failure they're part of God's preparation Each chapter offers A scripture anchor for strength and clarity Real stories of faith through career quakes and storms Reflection questions to process your own journey A closing prayer to draw you closer to God's peace This devotional won't sugarcoat the in between But it will remind you of this truth God has never wasted a storm never abandoned you in a quake and never closed a door without preparing something better Your assignment is already being prepared Your only job Trust Him with the journey
