the work world Providing practical examples and strong biblical insights this book will help anyone desiring to build character that stands the test of time The Ultimate Purpose Drayton Nabers, Jr., 2005-10 Character Counts is an understatement Character is crucially important for an abundant life It is essential that we deepen our understanding of this fundamental truth and to discover how we grow strong in character Our happiness depends on character So does the peace of our souls Our success in family and business depends upon our character The strength of our nation's government and its economy rests on good character In fact character is the single most important building block for quality of life in any
