Theology Primer John Jefferson Davis,1981 The Milk of the Word Robert P. Baker,2006-02 Although Dr Baker has desired to write The Milk of the Word for close to thirty years it is not until recently that the Holy Spirit has given him the go ahead to fulfill his desire Although the book is aimed at helping new Christians understand some of the basic doctrinal concepts of the Christian faith questions asked Dr Baker over the years have shown that even long time Christians will find this book interesting and informative The book starts out by examining logically historically scientifically prophetically and with respect to its self accreditation why the Bible is a trustworthy and inerrant source of information concerning the Creator of the Universe and His relationship to all of us Having once established the credibility of Scripture Dr Baker uses Scripture as the foundation for the remainder of the book frequently referencing and in many cases quoting Scripture to support the information presented Chapters 2 through 5 are concerned with the creation of man and how he is different from the animals birds and sea creatures created by God They explore the nature of God and explain in a simple straight forward manner the concept of the Trinity They explain the nature of the God Man Jesus Christ emphasizing how He is similar to all of us and showing how He is distinctly different from all other men making Him the one and only answer to the sin predicament of mankind Finally these chapters tell about the creation of angels demons and Satan describe the spiritual appearance of these beings and explain the positions they hold in the universe and their activities Chapters 6 through 7 explain the process of human death and describe at length what each of us can expect to experience at our death The same type of information is provided for our eternal future existence including how our death experience will be different from the experience of those who died before Jesus Christ returned to His Father in Heaven These chapters also explain clearly the sin predicament of mankind its significance and why only through Jesus Christ could the solution to that sin predicament be provided Chapter 8 discusses why Christians often find Christianity to be a burden and miss out on the abundant life that Jesus Christ came to provide for them not only an abundant life eternally existent into the future but an abundant life here and now It examines the resources Je A Theology Primer North Park College and Theological Seminary. Clyde F. Crews, 1986 An introduction to theology that explores secular and religious answers to the primal questions about who we are and what we shall be Systematic Theology Primer Dr Kenneth Raymond Terry, 2020-05-19 Who is God and what has He said There have been many books written to explain and help bring a greater understanding of God however we quickly find the Subject overwhelming and beyond our human capability or reasoning God is higher and greater than we are His thoughts are higher than our thoughts cf Isaiah 55 9 There are many great books on Theology and Systematic Theologies most of which are thousands of pages and even many volumes in length but noticeably this work is much shorter and that is purposefully done This Systematic Theology is called a primer because it is intended to be more an introduction and fodder to prepare a student for the greater and larger works of theology This book is for the individual who desires to get a start on understanding theology in a systematic way A Primer in Christian Doctrine Derrill L. Roberts, 2014-02 A Primer in Christian Doctrine goes far beyond the reach of a simple book on Christian theology it is rich with instruction inspiration and thought provoking insight into the Word of God and the Christian faith Accomplished author Derrill L Roberts meets four key goals in this crucial work defining God s work with man throughout the ages identifying the focal points of God s work within mankind confirming God s goals for man s existence and explaining how the teachings of the Bible support and accomplish those goals for mankind Whether the reader is looking for an in depth examination of fundamental Christian teachings and principles or just a basic introduction to Christian theology A Primer in Christian Doctrine will not disappoint Ernst Troeltsch and Comparative Theology Echol Lee Nix, 2010 Ernst Troeltsch and Comparative Theology examines the methodological attempts of Ernst Troeltsch and Robert Neville for discerning Christian normativity The investigation of Troeltsch focuses on his treatment of the absoluteness of Christianity and highlights the crisis brought upon absolute religious claims by the study of the history of religions By rejecting both the supernatural exclusive apologetic of orthodox Protestantism and the evolutionary apologetic of liberal Protestantism Troeltsch insists that theology s method should be the history of religions method die religionsgeschichtliche Methode Like Troeltsch Neville agrees with historical inquiries but contrary to Troeltsch Neville advances an axiological hypothesis to thinking which is founded in valuation Neville explains the role of valuation at the imaginative level of thinking and relates it to his theory of normative truth in religious symbols This study shows that Neville begins with Troeltsch s methodological presuppositions but achieves more normative theology than Troeltsch especially on ways in which God is engaged in symbolically shaped thinking and practice Both thinkers offer creative insights for theology that make possible a critical comparison of truth claims regarding the validity of Christianity in and for a historically conscious age A Korean Theology of Human Nature Jung Sun Oh, 2005-01-31 This remarkable study articulates a Korean Confucian Christian theory of human nature theory of justification sanctification and salvation by means of a reformed concept of filial piety The book investigates in depth the theological anthropology of Robert C Neville and the

inclusive humanism of Tu Wei ming Neville and Tu represent contemporary Christian and Confucian approaches to religious anthropology Furthermore they have engaged in an extended and productive dialogical encounter on the themes of comparative thought and religious renewal in Asia and North America This book argues that Neville s and Tu s insights into human nature have great relevance for a comparative contemporary Korean theology by focusing on the role of a reformed version of filial piety as a new component of Korean theology The articulation of filial piety as a potential key of contemporary Korean theology is an example of creative appropriation of a Confucian theme of the Christian praxis of sanctification and ultimately the soteriology of divine grace and transformation This study construes human nature to be such that any living theology will reflect the creative engagement of Christian theologians as public intellectuals in search of the articulation of the gospel

Creativity and God Robert C. Neville,1995-01-01 This book is a sympathetic critique of process theology with responses to the arguments addressed by leading thinkers

The Making of American Liberal Theology Gary J. Dorrien,2006-01-01 In this first of three volumes Dorrien identifies the indigenous roots of American liberal theology and demonstrates a wider longer running tradition than has been thought The tradition took shape in the nineteenth century motivated by a desire to map a modernist third way between orthodoxy and rationalistic deism atheism It is defined by its openness to modern intellectual inquiry its commitment to the authority of individual reason and experience its conception of Christianity as an ethical way of life and its commitment to make Christianity credible and socially relevant to modern people Dorrien takes a narrative approach and provides a biographical reading of important religious thinkers of the time including William E Channing Ralph Waldo Emerson Horace Bushnell Henry Ward Beecher Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Charles Briggs Dorrien notes that although liberal theology moved into elite academic institutions its conceptual foundations were laid in the pulpit rather than the classroom
