Challenger,2021-07-26 This book demonstrates that the most forceful contribution to George Gurdjieff s world view is Sufism understood as the tradition of seeking truth wherever it can be found especially at the meeting place of the world religions Gurdjieff s masterpiece Beelzebub s Tales to His Grandson is philosophically analyzed in its use of literary devices to jolt the reader into radical transformation      Beelzebub's Tales to His Grandson George Ivanovich Gurdjieff, According to the numerous deductions and conclusions resulting from my research concerning the profit contemporary people can obtain from new impressions coming from what they read or hear and also according to the thought of one of the sayings of popular wisdom I have just remembered handed down to our days from very ancient times Any prayer may be heard and granted by the Higher Powers only if it is uttered thrice First for the welfare or the peace of the souls of one s parents Second for the welfare of one s neighbor And only third for oneself personally I find it necessary on the first page of this book now ready for publication to give the following advice Read each of my written expositions thrice First at least as you have already become mechanized to read all your contemporary books and newspapers Second as if you were reading aloud to another person And only third try to fathom the gist of my writings Only then will you be able to count upon forming your own impartial judgment proper to yourself alone on my writings And only then can my hope be actualized that according to your understanding you will obtain the specific benefit for yourself which I anticipate and which I wish for you with all my being AMONG ALL the convictions formed in my common presence during my responsible peculiarly composed life there is one unshakable conviction that people whatever the degree of development of their understanding and whatever the form taken by the factors present in their individuality for engendering all kinds of ideals always and everywhere on the Earth feel the imperative need on beginning anything new to pronounce aloud or if not aloud at least mentally that particular invocation understandable to even the most ignorant person which has been formulated in different ways in different epochs and in our day is expressed in the following words In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost Amen That is why I now also in setting forth on this venture quite new for me namely authorship begin by pronouncing this invocation and pronounce it not only aloud but even very distinctly and as the ancient Toulousites used to say with a fully manifested intonation of course only to the extent permitted by data already formed in my whole presence and thoroughly rooted in it for such a manifestation data by the way which are generally formed in man s nature during his preparatory years and which later during his responsible life determine the character and vivifyingness of such an intonation Having begun thus I can now be quite at ease and should even according to contemporary notions of religious morality be completely assured that from now on everything in this new venture of mine will proceed as is said like a pianola In any case this is the way I have begun and how the rest will go I can only say as the blind man put it we shall see First and foremost I shall place my hand moreover the right one which although at the moment it is slightly injured due to an accident that recently befell me is nevertheless really my own and has never once failed me in all my life on my heart of course also my own but on the constancy or inconstancy of this part of my whole I see no need to expatiate here and frankly confess that I myself have not the slightest wish to write but am constrained to do so by circumstances quite independent of me though whether these circumstances arose accidentally or were created intentionally by extraneous forces I do not yet know I only know that these circumstances bid me write not just some trifle for reading oneself to sleep but thick and weighty tomes However that may be I begin But begin with what Oh the devil Will there indeed be repeated that strange and extremely unpleasant sensation it befell me to experience about three weeks ago while I was composing in my thoughts the scheme and sequence of the ideas I intended to publish and did not know then either how to begin This sensation I could only describe in these words the fear of drowning in the overflow of my own thoughts To stop this disagreeable sensation I might still have had recourse to that maleficent property inherent in me as in all contemporary people which enables us without experiencing any remorse of conscience whatever to put off anything we wish to do till tomorrow I could have done this very easily because before beginning the actual writing there seemed to be plenty of time but today this is no longer so and cost what it may even though I burst I must begin But begin with what Hurrah Eureka Almost all the books I have happened to read in my life have begun with a preface So I too must begin with something of the kind I say of the kind because in my entire life from the moment I began to distinguish a boy from a girl I have always done everything absolutely everything not as it is done by other like myself biped destroyers of Nature s good Therefore I ought now and am perhaps even bound on principle to begin not as any other writer would In any case instead of the conventional preface I shall begin quite simply with a warning Beginning with a warning will be most judicious on my part if only because it will not contradict any of my principles whether organic psychic or even willful At the same time it will be quite honest honest of course in the objective sense since I expect without the least doubt as do all those who know me well that owing to my writings there will entirely disappear in the majority of readers immediately and not gradually as sooner or later must occur to everyone all the treasures they have acquired either by inheritance or by their own labor in the form of quieting notions that evoke only romantic images of their present lives or naive dreams about the future Professional writers usually begin such introductions with an address to the reader full of all kinds of bombastic magniloquent and so to say honeyed and inflated phrases In this alone I shall follow their example and also begin with an address to the reader but I shall try not to make it as sugary as they usually do with their evil wisecracking by which they titillate the sensibilities of the more or less normal reader Thus My dear highly honored strong willed and of course very patient Sirs and my very dear charming and impartial Ladies forgive me I have omitted the most important my in no wise hysterical Ladies I have the honor to inform you that although due to circumstances that have arisen in one of the later stages of my life I am now going to write books during my whole life I have never written a single book or instructive article or even a letter in which it was necessary to observe what is called grammaticality so that although I am about to become a professional writer I have no practice at all in the established rules and procedures or in what is called bon ton literary language and am therefore constrained to write not as ordinary patented writers do to whose form of writing you are in all probability as much accustomed as to your own smell In my opinion what will be troublesome for you in all this is chiefly that in childhood there was implanted in you and has now become perfectly harmonized with your general psyche an excellently working automatism for perceiving all kinds of new impressions thanks to which blessing you have now during your responsible life no need to make any individual effort whatsoever
