Beggarstaff Posters:

The Beggarstaff Posters Colin Campbell, 1990 James Pryde and William Nicholson first made their names during the 1890s as poster designers Under the pseudonym J W Beggarstaff the two men collaborated on a series of revolutionary posters whose style was characterized by bold silhouettes simplified forms and pure flat colours Their first work together was for a production of Hamlet in which their friend Edward Gordon Craig took the title role and it made them famous overnight The Beggarstaffs work was acclaimed by critics of the time and became sought after by collectors By the time of the dissolution of the partnership their work had influenced many European and American designers and today they are rightly regarded as important pioneers of the modern pictorial advertisement The Poster Ruth E. Iskin, 2014-10-07 The Poster Art Advertising Design and Collecting 1860s 1900s is a cultural history that situates the poster at the crossroads of art design advertising and collecting Though international in scope the book focuses especially on France and England Ruth E Iskin argues that the avant garde poster and the original art print played an important role in the development of a modernist language of art in the 1890s as well as in the adaptation of art to an era of mass media She moreover contends that this new form of visual communication fundamentally redefined relations between word and image poster designers embedded words within the graphic rather than using images to illustrate a text Posters had to function as effective advertising in the hectic environment of the urban street Even though initially commissioned as advertisements they were soon coveted by collectors Iskin introduces readers to the late nineteenth century iconophile a new type of collector curator archivist who discovered in poster collecting an ephemeral archaeology of modernity Bridging the separation between the fields of art design advertising and collecting Iskin s insightful study proposes that the poster played a constitutive role in the modern culture of spectacle This stunningly illustrated book will appeal to art historians and students of visual culture as well as social and cultural history media design and advertising Posters Charles Matlack Price, 1913 The Poster, 1898 Poster Design Charles Matlack Price, 1922 Beggarstaff Poster Colin B. Children's Culture and the Avant-Garde Marilynn Strasser Olson, 2013-03-05 This volume explores the mutual influences between children s literature and the avant garde Olson places particular focus on fin de si cle Paris where the Avant garde was not unified in thought and there was room for modernism to overlap with children s literature and culture in the Golden Age The ideas explored by artists such as Florence Upton Henri Rousseau Sir William Nicholson Paula Modersohn Becker and Marc Chagall had been disseminated widely in cultural productions for children their work in turn influenced children s culture These artists turned to children s culture as a new way of seeing allied to a contemporary interest in international artistic styles Children s culture also has strong ties to decadence and to the grotesque the latter of which became a distinctively Modernist vision This book visits the qualities of the era that were defined as uniquely childlike the relation of childhood to high and low art and the relation of children s literature to fin de si cle artistic trends Topics of interest include the use of non European figures the Golliwogg approaches to religion and pedagogy to oppression and motherhood to Nature in a post Darwinian world and to vision in art and life Olson s unique focus covers new ground by concentrating not simply on children s literature but on how childhood experiences and culture figure in art Posters Bevis Hillier,1969 Scottish Painting, Past and Present, 1620-1908 Sir James Lewis Caw,1908 The Studio ,1895 Studio ,1895 Posters Tony Fusco,1994 Posters & Their Designers ,1924 The Sketch ,1895 The Poster Ervine Metzl,1963 Posters and Their Designers ,1924 Posters & Their Designers Sydney Robert Jones,1924 Picture posters, a short history, with reprod. of examples in all countries Charles Hiatt,1895 The Critic Jeannette Leonard Gilder,Joseph Benson Gilder,1897
