William Howell

Beginning With Babies:

Beginning with Babies Mary Lou Kinney, 1999 Beginning To Play Forbes, Ruth, 2004-08-01 Beginning to Play explores the young child's right to a high quality multi sensory play environment where play really can begin. It builds on Goldschmied's concept of Treasure Basket play which involves a wide variety of everyday objects gathered together to stimulate all five senses of babies and young children. The book features detailed observations of babies beginning to play at and beyond the treasure basket. These observations support readers in offering rich play materials and experiences.

Beginning the Human Story Elenore T. Pounds, Irma B. Fricke, 1977 The book is designed to serve a dual purpose. First it can be read to or by young children and enjoyed as a warm account of a significant event in a family; the book can also serve as a springboard for answering children's queries and for developing wholesome attitudes and sound ideas about family living including sex education appropriate for youngsters from ages five to eight.
