Looking Behind the Classroom Door John I. Goodlad, M. Frances Klein, 1974 Looking Behind the Classroom Door
John I. Goodlad, 1974 Behind the Classroom Door John I. Goodlad, M. Frances Klein, 1970 Behind a Classroom Door David A. Owen, 2010-01-01 Room N-9 Larry Shurilla, 2022-03-30 Room N 9 holds stories of struggling kids achieving kids wacky teachers surprising classroom moments inspiring coaching messages and once in a lifetime lessons Ultimately the spirit of middle school education and the love of a teacher for his students fills every page In the public school some days may not be Omaha Beach rough but society's problems do not stay at home They come to school too Being a classroom teacher is a front line occupation and some of my stories are raw because they're real and some of them are beautiful because the human spirit cannot be suppressed You'll have a hard time believing some of these events actually occurred but I assure you they did Teaching can also be a peek into heaven because working with children is God's choicest profession and oftentimes those few minutes we give to the one connects us in a beautiful way forever There is no more rewarding feeling for a teacher than when a student looks into your eyes and you know they get it Learning has sprouted in his or her mind and they feel the intrinsic worth of understanding accomplishment and personal growth Teaching is life We even become part of family discussions at the dinner table for a school year and sometimes more Mr Shurilla ripped his pants on the playground today Dad Really happened Oh Mom Mr Shurilla said he was ready for the nut house after teaching our class today Well hopefully they'll mention something about math or science once in a while too To Educate a Nation Carl F.
Kaestle, Alyssa E. Lodewick, 2007 Eleven stimulating essays using case studies of major cities and their schools suggest what might be done to better foster equity and diversity in educating American public school children highlighting the complications inherent in today's education system and providing a framework for grappling with these problems Letters from an Ocean Tramp William McFee, 1908 In the opening pages the author dies at sea and in his place a cynical person emerges who voyaged all over the seven seas in various steamers accumulating immense stocks of local color reading many books and gradually assuming the role of an amused spectator The Child-centered School Harold Ordway Rugg, Ann Shumaker, 1928 A Boy I Knew Laurence Hutton, 1900 An Ocean Tramp William McFee, 1921 Proceedings of the ... Congress of the American School Hygiene Association American School Hygiene Association, 1910 Proceedings of the 1st-13th Congress of the American School Hygiene Association, 1907-21 American School Hygiene Association, 1910
Emergency Librarian, 1988 Margaret Haley's Bulletin, 1927 Teaching for Student Learning Dick Arends, Ann Kilcher, 2010-02-25 Teaching for Student Learning shows teachers how to integrate research and the wisdom of practice into their teaching emphasizing how accomplished teachers acquire and apply evidence based practices in support of student learning No More Teachers, No More Books Heather-jane Robertson, 1998 Heather-jane Robertson has

A Contest without Winners Kate Phillippo, 2019-03-19 Seeing the consequences of competitive school choice policy through students eyes While policymakers often justify school choice as a means to alleviate opportunity and achievement gaps an unanticipated effect is increased competition over access to coveted high performing schools In A Contest without Winners Kate Phillippo follows a diverse group of Chicago students through the processes of researching applying to and enrolling in public high school Throughout this journey students prove themselves powerful policy actors who carry out and redefine competitive choice Phillippo s work amplifies the voices of students rather than the parents educators public intellectuals and policymakers who so often inform school choice research and investigates how students interact with and emerge from competitive choice academically developmentally and civically Through students experiences she shows how competitive choice legitimates and exacerbates existing social inequalities collides with students developmental vulnerability to messages about their ability merit and potential and encourages young people s individualistic actions as they come to feel that they must earn their educational rights From urban infrastructure to income inequality to racial segregation Phillippo examines the factors that shape students policy enactment and interpretation as policymakers and educators ask students to compete for access to public resources With competitive choice even the winners the lucky few admitted to their dream schools don t outright win A Contest without Winners challenges meritocratic and market driven notions of opportunity creation for young people and raises critical questions about the goals we have for public schooling
