Behind Scenes Amer Gov8:

AF Press Clips ,1986 West European Communism and American Foreign Policy Michael Arthur Ledeen,1987-01-01
The great vogue of Eurocommunism came to an end with the return of the French and Italian Communist Parties to positions of opposition to authority in the late 1970 s and the electoral confirmation that Spain s Communist Party would remain small As the vogue of communism with a human face passed The question of American policy toward Communists became far less pressing yet the question will almost certainly require attention in the future This is particularly true with respect to the Italian Communist Party which remains powerful in numbers and flexible in policy Michael Ledeen examines Communist Party participation in Western European governments since World War II and the ambivalent American foreign policy toward it He concentrates on the Italian Communist Party its history and its relations with the Soviet Union Togliatti Secchia Gramsci Nenni are identified as the major players in Italian communist and socialist politics The author explores in depth why the United States has been reluctant to become involved in internal Italian affairs and how this policy posture has strongly influenced in the development of communism in Western Europe Ledeen shows that the strategies of contemporary West European Communist Parties are now roughly similar to those of the immediate post war period He argues that American intellectuals are as uncritical of Eurocommunism as they were after the first flush of Allied victory in World War II that the Carter administration s foreign policy was incoherent and that the United States needs a consistent ideological approach to communism one that includes the capacity for action as well as reaction Michael Ledeen is a senior associate of the Center for Strategic and International Studies at Georgetown University and formerly taught history at Washington University He was the founding editor of The Washington Quarterly and is the author of among other works Grave New World The First Duce D Annunzio at Fiume and editor of U S Defense and Foreign Policy National Union Catalog ,1973 Includes entries for maps and atlases Hearings Before the Committee on Un-American Activities, House of Representatives, Eighty-eighth Congress, Second Session Estados Unidos.
