Belgic Confession And Its Biblical Basis:

The Belgic Confession and Its Biblical Basis Lepusculus Vallensis,1993 A Companion to Multiconfessionalism in the Early Modern World Thomas Max Safley,2011-06-09 This volume brings together recent scholarship on early modern multiconfessionalism that challenges accepted notions of reformation confessionalization and state building and suggests a new vision of religions state and society in early modern Europe Christian hermeneutics in South Africa Hendrik Goede,Nico Vorster,2024-02-26 Hermeneutics remains a divisive and polarizing topic within scholarly and ecclesiastical communities in South Africa These tensions are not limited to theoretical differences but often crystallize on a grassroots level when local churches and church assemblies have to make important decisions on controversial ethical topics such as ordaining women in church offices assessing the ethics of gay marriages and taking a stance on the land debate in South Africa This book makes a unique contribution in two ways firstly it focuses on the uniquely South African hermeneutical landscape secondly it relates theories to practical ethical application The unique scholarly contribution of this consists in it relating hermeneutics to ethics within the South African landscape A diverse group of scholars have been invited to partake in the project and the views expressed are often quite diverse This allows readers to develop an understanding and sensitivity of the various angles employed and the interests at stake in addressing difficult societal problems The Theology of the Reformed Confessions, 1923 Karl Barth,2005-07-15 In 1923 Karl Barth delivered a series of lectures offering his theological commentary on the Reformed confessions These lectures are collected here allowing readers rare insights into the mind of a great theologian The Columbia Series in Reformed Theology represents a joint commitment by Columbia Theological Seminary and Westminster John Knox Press to provide theological resources from the Reformed tradition for the church today This series examines theological and ethical issues that confront church and society in our own particular time and place To Win Our Neighbors for Christ Wes Bredenhof,2015-02-01 In many modern histories of Christian missions the Protestant Reformation of the sixteenth century is depicted as a movement lacking missionary zeal It has virtually become a given that the Reformation was not oriented to the church s missionary task In order to win our neighbors for Christ Wes Bredenhof answers these charges proving that it is a mistake to say the Reformation and the confessional documents it produced have nothing to say about missions the author demonstrates that the three forms of Unity the Belgic Confession the Heidelberg Catechism and the Canons of Dort properly understood have much to off err the study of missions more importantly they encourage us to care about a world lost in unbelief making us more mission oriented and outward looking
