

Beloved Woman of the Cherokee - Nancy Ward

Painting by Sharon Irla, 2009. Oil on Canvas (18" x 24")

The "Ghi-ga-u" - also known as "Beloved Woman" or "War Woman" was an honor and office bestowed upon Cherokee women of exceptional bravery and honor. Although, no known portraits any of these women are known to exist, Nancy Ward (born approx. 1738) was one such woman to earn the title after a battle of Taliwa with the Muskogee Creek Indians. It was during that battle that her husband Kingfisher was slain, afterwhich, she took up his rifle and rallied the Cherokee to victory. As the Ghi-ga-u, she headed the Council of Women with a seat and vote on the Council of Chiefs, Nancy Ward had supreme pardoning power and was an emissary of peace.

Beloved Woman:

Luce Irigaray's Phenomenology of Feminine Being Virpi Lehtinen, 2014-05-15 A dynamic interpretation of feminine identity capable of resistance change and transformation The reception of Luce Irigaray's ideas about feminine identity has centered largely on questions of essentialism whether criticizing this as a destructive flaw or interpreting it in strategic or pragmatic terms Staking out an alternative approach Virpi Lehtinen finds in the phenomenology of Husserl and Merleau-Ponty a framework for what she characterizes as dynamic essentialism which seeks to account for the complex networks of lived experience embodied affective and spiritual relations to oneself to others and to the world Rather than prescribing one norm to which all women should conform Lehtinen argues Irigaray's work exemplifies how each individual woman in her own way contributes to a norm of femininity that is both unique and singular but also connected to the existential styles of past present and future others

Dominican Penitent Women Maiju Lehmijoki-Gardner, 2005 Dominican Penitent Women presents a fascinating overview of the spirituality religious practices and ways of life of medieval Italian women who belonged to the Dominican Order as lay members or penitents Through selected texts readers gain a fresh perspective on the institutional and spiritual foundations of Dominican lay life but also an understanding of how these women refashioned Dominican ideals into practices that best responded to their individual and social means Their way of life created an important alternative for women who sought religious perfection in the world The first section consists of two penitent rules the Ordinations of Munio from the late 13th century and the formal penitent rule of the early 15th century which show how penitents were to organize and live their lives The second section is dedicated to hagiographic sources The third section is made up of penitent women's religious writing The texts translated here present an overview of Dominican women's literary production that complements the writings of Catherine of Siena already available in English While Dominican penitent women held an important position in medieval piety aside from Catherine of Siena their spirituality has not attracted much scholarly attention As the first comprehensive introduction to medieval Dominican laywomen and Dominican penitent spirituality in English this book makes a significant scholarly and spiritual contribution
