Ben Makes A Cake:

Benjamin Makes His Mark Arline R. Gaugler, 2013-02-27 This story Benjamin Makes His Mark takes place when there are no telephones in the beginning of the story at least for most of the country people no central heating no electric sweepers and no electric refrigerators yet They have a cabinet with a square box outlined in metal This holds a block of ice They use wood and coal for cooking and baking They have a parlor heater to heat the living room and the kitchen stove heats the kitchen Some people have a fireplace in both the living room and in the kitchen and some in a bedroom upstairs They grow most of their food and raise livestock for their milk butter and meat and raise chickens for eggs and for the meat They also raise a few geese or turkeys and have their own clucks breeding chickens Most of the clothing is sewed with a sewing machine you pedal for power no electric sewing machines yet There is no transportation to school one room schoolhouses no taxi or bus Some towns have a trolley There are trains and no airplanes Horses are used for the family transportation No bowling alleys tennis courts and golf courses just baseball played in the fields by the children Some farms still use kerosene lamps and candles they are not yet hooked up to electric Cleaning the outhouse outside toilet is a very difficult job but must be done once a year and lime thrown in the pit below

When Glass Breaks Allissa Oldenberg, 2023-10-19 When Glass Breaks is the heart rending story of Ben Lindenheim who became separated from his older brother during the Kindertransport and who lived a life of heroism trauma adventure love denial illness family failure and lies but always in the hope of one day being reunited with his brother Only at the end does the reader discover the novel is narrated by Helen Painter as she seeks to piece together fragments of her father's past most of which he tried to conceal from his family She knew only that he had a war pension due to a shrapnel injury he had a scar that he fought with the Royal Norfolk regiment or so he said that he was an army boxing champion impossible to check out that he spent a couple of years in South Africa which may have been true as there were two African language books on the bookshelves at home that he was educated at Winchester but he knew no Latin or Greek that his family were killed in the Blitz with one brother dying in North Africa and which may have included a baby son something his post stroke lability let slip and that he was Jewish which she knew from her own DNA test taken long after he died Nothing much checked out and the family history searches revealed no mention of the surname before his marriage certificate So she filled in the blanks and gave him a past one which would honour the father with whom she had shared a difficult relationship largely she came to acknowledge due to the psychological scars he bore Anyone who has read En Passant will have become acquainted with Saul Lindenheim a minor character who has lived for many years with the guilt of being separated from his brother Ben during the Kindertransport and the hope of one day being reunited When Glass Breaks is the story of Ben s life Comprehension Across the Curriculum Kathy Ganske,Douglas Fisher,2010-01-01
