passionately held pacifism which made him suspect to the authorities during and immediately after the Second World War and his homosexuality specifically his forty year relationship with Peter Pears for whom many of his greatest operatic roles and vocal works were created The atmosphere and personalities of Aldeburgh in his native Suffolk also form another wonderful dimension to the book Kildea shows clearly how Britten made this creative community notably with the foundation of the Aldeburgh Festival and the building of Snape Maltings but also how costly the determination that this required was Above all this book helps us understand the relationship of Britten s music to his life and takes us as far into his creative process as we are ever likely to go Kildea reads dozens of Britten s works with enormous intelligence and sensitivity in a way which those without formal musical training can understand It is one of the most moving and enjoyable biographies of a creative artist of any kind to have appeared for years Paul Kildea is a writer and conductor who has performed many of the Britten works he writes about in opera houses and concert halls from Sydney to Hamburg His previous books include Selling Britten 2002 and as editor Britten on Music 2003 He was Head of Music at the Aldeburgh Festival between 1999 and 2002 and subsequently Artistic Director of the Wigmore Hall in London Benjamin Britten, His Life and Operas Eric Walter White, 1983 Letters from a Life Benjamin Britten, 1998 Benjamin Britten, 1913-1976; Picture from a life Donald Mitchell, John Evans, 1978 Letters from a Life: 1946-1951 Benjamin Britten, 1991 The third volume of the annotated selected letters of composer Benjamin Britten covers the years 1946-51 during which he wrote many of his best known works founded and developed the English Opera Group and the Aldeburgh Festival and toured widely in Europe and the United States as a pianist and conductor Correspondents include librettists Ronald Duncan The Rape of Lucretia Eric Crozier Albert Herring Saint Nicolas The Little Sweep and E M Forster Billy Budd conductor Ernest Ansermet and composer Lennox Berkeley publishers Ralph Hawkes and Erwin Stein of Boosey and the celebrated tenor Peter Pears Britten s partner Among friends in the United States are Christopher Isherwood Elizabeth Mayer and Aaron Copland and there is a significant meeting with Igor Stravinsky This often startling and innovative period is vividly evoked by the comprehensive and scholarly annotations which offer a wide range of detailed information fascinating for both the Britten specialist and the general reader Donald Mitchell contributes a challenging introduction exploring the interaction of life and work in Britten s creativity and an essay examining for the first time through their correspondence the complex relationship between the composer and the writer Edward Sackville West
