Bennett, Wells, and Conrad Linda R. Anderson, 1988 Bennett, Wells and Conrad Linda R. Anderson, 1988 Margins of Desire Lynne Hapgood, 2005-05-06 Who said that the suburbs are boring The suburban trick is to look ordinary and be extraordinary as Lynne Hapgood's absorbing discussion of the suburbs in fiction from 1880 1925 reveals Literary Mapping in the Digital Age David Cooper, Christopher Donaldson, Patricia Murrieta-Flores, 2016-05-20 Drawing on the expertise of leading researchers from around the globe this pioneering collection of essays explores how geospatial technologies are revolutionizing the discipline of literary studies The book offers the first intensive examination of digital literary cartography a field whose recent and rapid development has yet to be coherently analysed This collection not only provides an authoritative account of the current state of the field but also informs a new generation of digital humanities scholars about the critical and creative potentials of digital literary mapping The book showcases the work of exemplary literary mapping projects and provides the reader with an overview of the tools techniques and methods those projects employ The Cambridge Companion to the Modernist Novel Morag Shiach, 2007-04-19 The novel is modernism's most vital and experimental genre With a chronology and guide to further reading this 2007 Companion is an accessible and informative overview of the genre A Student's History of English Literature William Edward Simonds, 1921 Railways and Culture in Britain Ian Carter, 2001 The 19th century steam railway epitomized modernity's relentlessly onrushing advance Ian Carter delves into the cultural impact of the train Why for example did Britain possess no great railway novel He compares fiction and images by canonical British figures Turner Dickens Arnold Bennett with selected French and Russian competitors Tolstoy Zola Monet Manet He argues that while high cultural work on the British steam railway is thin British popular culture did not ignore it Detailed discussions of comic fiction crime fiction and cartoons reveal a popular fascination with railways tumbling from vast and hitherto unexplored stores of critically overlooked genres Library and the Museum Therein Newark Public Library, 1928 Includes the Report of the public library for 1918 British Marxist Criticism Victor N. Paananen, 2021-12-12 British Marxist Criticism provides selective but extensive annotated bibliographies introductory essays and important pieces of work from each of eight British critics who sought to explain literary production according to the principles of Marxism Tales and Romances Sir Arthur Thomas Quiller-Couch, 1928 Realism, Form, and Representation in the Edwardian Novel Charlotte Jones, 2021-01-07 The real represents to my perception the things that we cannot possibly not know sooner or later in one way or another wrote Henry James in 1907 This description riven with double negatives hesitation and uncertainty encapsulates the epistemological difficulties of realism for underlying its narrative and descriptive apparatus as an aesthetic mode lies a philosophical quandary What grounds the real of the realist novel What kind of perception is required to validate the experience of reality How does the realist novel represent the difficulty of knowing What comes to the fore in James's account as in so many is how the forms of realism are constituted by a relation to unknowing absence and ineffability Realism Form and Representation in the Edwardian Novel recovers a neglected literary history centred on the intricate relationship between fictional representation and philosophical commitment It asks how or if we can conceptualize realist novels when the objects of their representational intentions are realities that might exist beyond what is empirically verifiable by sense data or analytically verifiable by logic and are thus irreducible to conceptual schemes or linguistic practices a formulation Charlotte Jones refers to as synthetic realism In new readings of Edwardian novels including Conrad s Nostromo and The Secret Agent Wells s Tono Bungay and Ford s The Good Soldier this volume revises and reconsiders key elements of realist novel theory metaphor and metonymy character interiority the insignificant detail omniscient narration and free indirect discourse causal linearity to uncover the representational strategies by which realist writers grapple with the recalcitrance of reality as a referential anchor and seek to give form to the force opacity and uncertain scope of realities that may lie beyond the material In restoring a metaphysical dimension to the realist novel s imaginary Realism Form and Representation in the Edwardian Novel offers a new conceptualization of realism both within early twentieth century literary culture and as a transhistorical mode of representation
