Andrew Young Richard Ormrod,2018-01-01 It is the central contention of this book that Andrew John Young 1885 1971 is still seriously under valued amongst twentieth century poets principally because he has been over anthologised and by implication dismissed as yet another nature poet of the Georgian ilk A re assessment is long overdue Omrod argues by way of both biography and critical analysis that Young is a great poet a modern metaphysical a poet s poet whose idiolect is distinctive and whose individual talent both links to yet subtly changes literary tradition      Andrew Young, Prospect of a Poet Leonard Clark,1957      The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson,I. R. Willison,1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries      Writers Directory NA was there the challenge of new forms of oral and visual culture Even literary education and literary criticism could sometimes actually distance novels poems and plays from their potential audience This is the trend which Roger D Sell now seeks to reverse Arguing that literature can still be a significant and democratic channel of human interactivity he sees the most helpful role of teachers and critics as one of mediation Through their own example they can encourage readers to empathize with otherness to recognize the historical achievement of significant acts of writing and to respond to literary authors own faith in communication itself By way of illustration he offers major re assessments of five canonical figures Vaughan Fielding Dickens T S Eliot and Frost and of two fascinating twentieth century writers who were somewhat misunderstood the novelist William Gerhardie and the poet Andrew Young      Thirty-One Poem Professor Department of
