Collected Works Of Edward Sapir Northwest California Linguistics:

The Collected Works of Edward Sapir: Northwest California linguistics, 1989 The Collected Works of Edward Sapir Edward Sapir, 1992 The collected works of Edward Sapir Edward Sapir, 1990 Northwest California Linguistics Victor Golla, Sean O'Neill, 2010-12-14 This volume contains Sapir's full edition of Hupa texts with complete linguistic and textual annotations The texts are accompanied by an analytic lexicon a complete inventory of all stems and derivational bases contained in the corpus and a detailed ethnographic glossary The Collected Works of Edward Sapir Edward Sapir, 2001 Cultural Contact and Linguistic Relativity Among the Indians of Northwestern California Sean O'Neill, 2008 Examines the linguistic relativity principle in relation to the Hupa Yurok and Karuk Indians Despite centuries of intertribal contact the American Indian peoples of northwestern California have continued to speak a variety of distinct languages At the same time they have come to embrace a common way of life based on salmon fishing and shared religious practices In this thought provoking re examination of the hypothesis of linguistic relativity Sean O'Neill looks closely at the Hupa Yurok and Karuk peoples to explore the striking juxtaposition between linguistic diversity and relative cultural uniformity among their communities O'Neill examines intertribal contact multilingualism storytelling and historical change among the three tribes focusing on the traditional culture of the region as it existed during the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries He asks important historical questions at the heart of the linguistic relativity hypothesis Have the languages in fact grown more similar as a result of contact multilingualism and cultural convergence Or have they instead maintained some of their striking grammatical and semantic differences Through comparison of the three languages O'Neill shows that long term contact among the tribes intensified their linguistic differences creating unique Hupa Yurok and Karuk identities If language encapsulates worldview as the principle of linguistic relativity suggests then this region's linguistic diversity is puzzling Analyzing patterns of linguistic accommodation as seen in the semantics of space and time grammatical classification and specialized cultural vocabularies O'Neill resolves the apparent paradox by assessing long term effects of contact Atlas of the World's Languages R.E. Asher, Christopher Moseley, 2018-04-19 Three separate chapters on the languages of the Americas North America Meso America and South America with key historical maps for America fully updated The only language atlas of this scope available Internationally renowned chapter editors and contributors A key reference for language linguistics and anthropology departments Special pre publication price of 325 California Indian Languages Victor Golla, 2022-02 Nowhere was the linguistic diversity of the New World more extreme than in California where an extraordinary variety of village dwelling peoples spoke seventy eight mutually unintelligible languages This comprehensive illustrated handbook a major synthesis of more than 150 years of documentation and study reviews what we now know about California's indigenous languages Victor Golla outlines the basic structural features of more than two dozen language types and cites all the major sources both published and unpublished for the documentation of these languages from the earliest vocabularies collected by explorers and missionaries to the data amassed during the twentieth century by Alfred Kroeber and his colleagues to the extraordinary work of John P Harrington and C Hart Merriam Golla also devotes chapters to the role of language in reconstructing prehistory and to the intertwining of language and culture in pre contact California societies making this work the first of its kind an essential reference on California s remarkable Indian languages
