Collective Absolute Presuppositions Text:

Rethinking R.G. Collingwood Gary Browning, 2004-04-30 Rethinking R G Collingwood reviews Collingwood's thought via his own rethinking of Hegel. It establishes the revisionary character of Collingwood's defence of liberal civilization in theory and practice. Collingwood is seen as avoiding the pitfalls of Hegel's teleological historicism by developing an open and contestable reading of the rationality of liberal civilization which neither reduces practice to theory nor philosophy to history. The contemporary relevance of Collingwood's standpoint is demonstrated by comparing it with those of recent defenders and critics of liberalism: Rawls, Lyotard and MacIntyre. Cumulated Index to the Books, 1999. Invoking Hope Phillip E. Wegner, 2020-06-30 An appeal for the importance of theory, utopia and close consideration of our contemporary dark times. What does any particular theory allow us to do? What is the value of doing so? And who benefits? In Invoking Hope Phillip E. Wegner argues for the undiminished importance of the practices of theory, utopia and a deep and critical reading of our current situation of what Bertolt Brecht refers to as finsternen Zeiten or dark times. Invoking Hope was written in response to three events that occurred in 2016: the five hundredth anniversary of the publication of Thomas More's Utopia, the one hundredth anniversary of the founding text in theory, Ferdinand de Saussure's Course in General Linguistics, and the rise of the right wing populism that culminated in the election of Donald Trump. Wegner offers original readings of major interventions in theory alongside dazzling utopian imaginaries developed from classical Greece to our global present from Theodor Adorno, Ernst Bloch, Alain Badiou, Jacques Derrida, Fredric Jameson, Sarah Ahmed, Susan Buck-Morss and Jacques Lacan to such works as Plato's Republic, W. E. B. Du Bois's John Brown, Isak Dinesen's Babette's Feast, Kim Stanley Robinson's 2312 and more. Wegner comments on an expansive array of modernist and contemporary literature, film theory and popular culture. With Invoking Hope, Wegner provides an innovative lens for considering the rise of right wing populism and the current crisis in democracy. He discusses challenges in the humanities and higher education and develops strategies of creative critical reading and hope against the grain of current trends in scholarship. Empathy and History Tyson Retz, 2018-07-27 Empathy and History offers a comprehensive and dual account of empathy's intellectual and educational history. Beginning in an influential educational movement that implanted the concept in R. G. Collingwood's re-enactment doctrine, the book goes back to reveal the fundamental role that empathy played in the foundation of the history discipline before tracing its reception and development in twentieth-century hermeneutics and philosophy of history. Attentive to matters of practice, it illuminates the distinct character of the historical context that empathetic understanding seeks to capture and sets out a new approach to empathy as a special variety of historical questioning. Directory of American Scholars, 1978. A Theory of the Literary Text Antonio García-Berrio, 2016-11-21 No detailed description available for A Theory of the Literary Text. The Future of Love John Milbank, 2009-01-01 With a newly written preface relating his theology to the current global situation, The Future of Love contains revised versions of eighteen of John Milbank's essays on theology politics religion and culture ranging from the onset of neoliberalism to its current crisis and from the British to the global context Many of the essays first appeared in obscure places and are thus not widely known Also included are Milbank's most important responses to critiques of his seminal work Theology and Social Theory Taken together the collection amounts to a political theology arrived at from diverse angles This work is essential reading for all concerned with the current situation of religion in the era of globalization and with the future development of Radical Orthodoxy

Intervening and Changing Jaap Boonstra, Leon de Caluwe, 2007-04-30 Presenting new thinking in organizational psychology from the Netherlands Intervening and Changing is a guide to applying global thinking and democratic values to achieve innovation Expertly steered by Jaap Boonstra and Leon de Caluwe it explores tensions and paradoxes in the field of organizational change and presents interventions based in social interaction theory Its vision is of people collaborating making sense of their work and living situations and developing collaborative action for breakthrough innovation will be a source of inspiration for any manager consultant or change agent

God and the Creative Imagination Paul Avis, 2013-01-11 A mere metaphor only symbolic just a myth these tell tale phrases reveal how figurative language has been cheapened and devalued in our modern and postmodern culture In God and the Creative Imagination Paul Avis argues the contrary we see that actually metaphor symbol and myth are the key to a real knowledge of God and the sacred Avis examines what he calls an alternative tradition stemming from the Romantic poets Blake Wordsworth and Keats and drawing on the thought of Clarendon and Newman and experience in both modern philosophy and science God and the Creative Imagination intriguingly draws on a number of non theological disciplines from literature to philosophy of science to show us that God is appropriately likened to an artist or poet and that the greatest truths are expressed in an imaginative form Anyone wishing to further their understanding of God belief and the imagination will find this an inspiring work
