Aethiopica ,1998 Syntactic Analysis and Description David Lockwood,2005-12-07 This book is designed to teach undergraduate and beginning graduate students how to understand analyse and describe syntactic phenomena in different languages The book covers every aspect of syntax from the basics to more specialised topics such as clitics which have grammatical importance but cannot be used in isolation and negation in which a construction contradicts the meaning of a sentence The approach taken combines concepts from different theoretical schools which view syntax differently These include M A K Halliday s systemic functional linguistics the stratificational school advocated by Sydney Lamb and Kenneth L Pike s tagmemic model The emphasis of the book is on syntactic structures rather than linguistic meaning and the book stresses the difference between a well formed sentence and a meaningful one The final chapter brings these two aspects together to show the connections between syntax and semantics Each chapter concludes with exercises from a diverse range of languages and a list of major technical terms The book also includes a glossary as an essential resource for students approaching this difficult subject for the first time

Globally Speaking Judith Rosenhouse, Rotem Kowner,2008-05-22 This volume accounts for the motives for contemporary lexical borrowing from English using a comparative approach and a broad cross cultural perspective It investigates the processes involved in the penetration of English vocabulary into new environments and the extent of their integration into twelve languages representing several language families including Icelandic Dutch French Russian Hungarian Hebrew Arabic Amharic Persian Japanese Taiwan Chinese and several languages spoken in southern India Some of these languages are studied here in the context of borrowing for the first time ever All in all this volume suggests that the English lexical invasion as it is often referred to is a natural and inevitable process It is driven by psycholinguistic sociolinguistic and socio historical factors of which the primary determinants of variability are associated with ethnic and linguistic diversity
