HOOKER,2018 A Dance with the Dragon Julia Boyd,2012-02-28 With its fossil hunters and philosophers diplomats dropouts writers and explorers missionaries and refugees Peking s foreign community in the early 20th century was as exotic as the city itself Always a magnet for larger than life individuals Peking attracted characters as diverse as Reginald Johnston tutor to the last emperor Bertrand Russell Pierre Loti Rabrindranath Tagore Sven Hedin Peter Fleming Wallis Simpson and Cecil Lewis The last great capital to remain untouched by the modern world Peking both entranced and horrified its foreign residents Ignoring the poverty outside their gates they danced played and squabbled among themselves oblivious to the great political events that were to shape modern China unfolding around them This is a dazzling portrait of an eclectic foreign community and of China itself Victorian Women Travellers in Meiji Japan Lorraine Sterry,2009-01-29 This volume complements other published works about travel by nineteenth century women writers by locating and creating space for Japan which is missing within recent critical discourses on travel writing It examines the narratives of women writers who travelled to Japan from the mid 1850s onwards when Japan was first opened to the West and became a highly desirable travel destination for decades thereafter Many women travelled in this period and although most left no record of their journeys enough did to form a discrete body of literature spanning more than fifty years from the end of the feudal Tokugawa era to the rise of Meiji Japan as a world power Their narratives about Japan occupy a culturally significant place not only in the genre of Victorian female travel writing but in Victorian travel writing per se The writers who are the subject of this book are divided into two groups those who were travellers by intent namely Anna D A Alice Frere Annie Brassey Isabella Bird and Marie Stopes and those who travelled by default as the wives of diplomats namely Mrs Pemberton Hodgson Mrs Hugh Fraser and Baroness Albert d Anethan

The Empress and Mrs. Conger Grant Hayter-Menzies,2011-01-01 This is the story of two women from worlds that could not seem farther apart imperial China and the American Midwest who found common ground before and after one of the greatest clashes between East and West the fifty five day siege of the Beijing foreign legations known as the Boxer Uprising Using diaries letters and other sources The Empress and Mrs Conger traces the parallel lives of Empress Dowager Cixi and American ambassador s wife Sarah Pike Conger which converged to alter their perspectives of each other and each other s worlds Grant Hayter Menzies is the author of Imperial Masquerade The Legend of Princess Der Ling and the biographer of stage and screen stars Charlotte Greenwood and Billie Burke Sarah Conger s story is worth telling for many reasons She occupied a point in time that makes her interesting but the author demonstrates that she is interesting in her own right a flawed and fascinating individual whose story we want to read not for what we learn about Chinese history but for what we learn about a woman profoundly typical of her era and class leading a life of determination in the belief that the right combination of positive attitudes and common sense must win out over adversity Timothy Brook University of British Columbia
