Pritchard,1991 Pritchard provides a deliberate and convincing argument for a starting point for the discussion of moral development on in which self regard and empathy provide equally essential groundings for individual morality Drawing essential elements from the work of Reid Strawson Rawls Kohlberg and Gilligan he builds a comprehensive framework for tracing moral development from childhood one that allows human morality to be grounded in both reason and emotion and that recognizes the importance to morality of justice and rights as well as caring and responsibility Calendar of State Papers Mary Anne Everett Green,1872 The Danger From Strangers James D. Comer,Alvin F. transnational level Dahl argues that in order to grasp these new realities of care we need a new analytical framework that redirects us to new sites of contestation Dahl approaches these issues from a post structuralist and radical feminist position while drawing from feminist sociology feminist political science nursing philosophy and feminist history In particular Struggles In Elderly Care highlights how the predominantly feminist theorization of care has been dominated by a sociological bias that could be improved using insights from political science concerning concepts of power and struggle and the importance of the state and governance This book will be of interest to researchers in sociology gerontology nursing and feminist studies Keim's Illustrated Hand-book, Washington and Its Environs De Benneville Randolph Keim,1874
