Questioning Your Faith

Stephen Robinson, 2004-12-01 There is a disturbing movement in the Western world today based on the principle of anything but Christianity But even believers wrestle daily with faith and understanding of God There are three main areas that cause skepticism and doubt regarding Christianity in both believers and non believers The first is the pursuit of science as ultimate truth This book reconciles the Bible s teachings on sin and salvation with modern science while glorifying the Creator Second because of misconstrued beliefs about human equality the notion that all religions are fundamentally the same has become popular A careful examination of the beliefs of the major religions shows that they are all very different and cannot be reconciled into one universal faith Finally the applications of flawed logic and selective reading to scripture and theology have led many to disregard Christianity as internally inconsistent Here reason and logic are fused with Christian beliefs to show their congruence with a rational God To know God and be saved through his son are the supreme goals of every human but Jesus said that we are in his will if we spread with our mouths the truth we contain in our hearts An objective critique of Christianity allows us to change doubts into confidence from which we can move into bold evangelism

Bottom Line

Beliefs Michael Brown, 2012-08-24 On Sunday morning wherever you worship the odds are strong that you occupy a pew with other members of your own congregation who disagree with you about subjects varying from the Virgin Birth to the sacraments to whether or not the Bible is the literal or the inspired poetic word of God In one s own house of faith people are seldom of a single mind Despite such differences there are principles God as Creator the centrality of Jesus grace and sacraments to name just a few that are bedrock to the Christian faith and these are the subject of Michael Brown s Bottom Line Beliefs Though individual denominations congregations and Christians may argue about how to interpret particular doctrines all Christians accept and affirm some interpretation of them as central and vital to the practice of the faith About each of these principles we say I believe in that It is dear to me It is nonnegotiable It is indispensable to my faith Though we may differ on the nuances of each of these doctrines we still confess that they are central to our understanding of Christianity They are the bottom line beliefs that form the body of our shared Christianity Michael Brown is the new voice at one of

Whose God? Which Tradition? D.Z. Phillips,2016-12-05 Philosophy of Religion is marked by controversy over which philosophical accounts do justice to core religious beliefs Many Wittgensteinian philosophers are accused by analytic philosophers of religion of distorting these beliefs In Whose God Which Tradition the accusers stand accused of the same by leading philosophers in the Thomist and Reformed traditions Their criticisms alert us to the dangers of uncritical acceptance of dominant philosophical traditions and to the need to do justice to the conceptual uniqueness of the reality of God The dissenting voices breathe new life into the central
