Georgia's Historical Recipes Valerie J. Frey, 2025-05-01 Georgia's Historical Recipes is an exploration of our state's oldest recipes from the antebellum period through World War II as painstakingly researched by Georgia archivist Valerie J. Frey. This volume begins with a discussion of old recipes as primary sources and what they can tell us about the history and culture of their era and how to bring them to life in modern kitchens. Frey then moves into fifty sections that can be read alone yet allow readers to build an understanding of how foodways evolved over time. Some sections highlight a single recipe illustrating how changes in technology, agriculture, transportation, communication, and social patterns led to changes in Georgia kitchens. Most of the recipes are previously unpublished, waiting in archives to be rediscovered. Other sections explore our oldest cookbooks, offering biographical and cultural background information that makes them more meaningful. For the first time, Georgians have a list of the state's early cookbooks and its cooking experts. Readers will learn where to find Georgia's oldest recipes and discover many examples to whet their appetites, literally and figuratively, for a taste of Georgia's past.

Atlanta and Environs Franklin M. Garrett, 2011-03-01 Atlanta and Environs is in every way an exhaustive history of the Atlanta Area from the time of its settlement in the 1820s through the 1970s. Volumes I and II together, more than two thousand pages in length, represent a quarter century of research by their author, Franklin M. Garrett, a man called a walking encyclopedia on Atlanta history by the Atlanta Journal-Constitution. With the publication of Volume III by Harold H. Martin, this chronicle of the South's most vibrant city incorporates the spectacular growth and enterprise that have characterized Atlanta in recent decades. The work is arranged chronologically, with a section devoted to each decade, a chapter to each year. Volume I covers the history of Atlanta and its people up to 1880, ranging from the city's founding as Terminus through its Civil War destruction and subsequent phoenixlike rebirth. Volume II details Atlanta's development from 1880 through the 1930s, including occurrences of such diversity as the development of the Coca-Cola Company and the Atlanta premiere of Gone with the Wind. Taking up the city's fortunes in the 1940s, Volume III spans the years of Atlanta's greatest growth. Tracing the rise of new buildings on the downtown skyline and the construction of Hartsfield International Airport on the city's perimeter, covering the politics at City Hall and the box scores of Atlanta's new baseball team, recounting the changing terms of race relations and the city's growing support of the arts, the last volume of Atlanta and Environs documents the maturation of the South's preeminent city.

Lost Sounds Alan Renton, 2001-04 Lost Sounds visits a number of lighthouses at different times over the last 130 years to reveal the philanthropic, scientific, and romantic story of the fog signal: how it came about, how the machinery worked, and for the mariner and the keeper, what it sounded like. The development of fog signals complemented the expansion of lighthouse construction worldwide from the last quarter of the 19th century and represented the attempt to provide a vital navigation aid to mariners when the beam of light from the lighthouse lens was obscured by fog. Lost Sounds reveals the practical development of sound signals from the early percussion instruments to the later succession of compressed air sirens and diaphones through to the last remaining electric emitters But it is much more than that it is a record of another part of maritime history
