puts a dime in the Wurlitzer Jukebox that's been there since the day the Diner opened in the 1950s. The Jukebox never plays what's left of the selections, almost all of which have faded over time. Instead, it plays a song that becomes the soundtrack of their lives in that moment. About The Scribe Jason Mori began writing stories in his Substack in 2022, beginning with a series of indie music playlists. In 2023, he was inspired by musician Maddisun to write something bigger. Her story, "But to do so, he had to be a better writer." That's when Isabella started telling Jason the story of The Jukebox at The Diner. It began with Chris Pierce's 45 Jukebox and continues today with the first draft of "Bloody Candy Apples." A Margaret Apple Mystery already underway on Substack. Rose Richardson is on the run from her dangerous ex-husband, a crime she didn't commit, and the embarrassment of being an advice columnist with a disastrous personal life. With a fake identity and her adorable dog Bella, she escapes to a lake house rental in rural Connecticut, only to discover her refuge is already occupied. Now her plans have been disrupted by the most attractive man she's ever seen. A prize-winning novelist mourning the loss of his wife, Leo Drake, clearly wants to be alone. But Rose has nowhere else to go, plus he kind of likes the quirky pooch. Perhaps this beautiful, fragile Rose is just the muse he needs.
