The Collected Raffles Ernest William Hornung, 1992 The Collected Raffles Stories Ernest William Hornung, 1996
The adventures of one of fiction's most enduring characters the hyper elegant A J Raffles man about town thief and finest slow bowler of his generation With his partner in crime Bunny Manders Raffles preys on the rich the greedy and the unspeakably vulgar His talents are exercised not only in London but as far afield as Italy Australia and South Africa at the height of the Boer War The emphasis on panache with intensifying suggestions of fallibility goes to the heart of late Victorian attitudes and values In this volume are all the adventures contained in The Amateur Cracksman The Black Mask and A Thief in the Night with a new introduction and a map of London locations The Collected Raffles E. W. Hornung, Jeremy Lewis, 1993-11-04 Formal Investigations: Aesthetic Style in Late-Victorian and Edwardian Detective Fiction Paul Fox, Koray Melikoglu, 2014-05-01 The essays in this revised and expanded volume explore a variety of structuring taxonomies the relationships between the aesthetic forms styles and methodologies of detective and crime fiction in the late Victorian and Edwardian period The influences on the artists in the genre are as varied as the interests of the period in scientific method forensics archaeology aesthetics medicine and the paranormal But the formalizing tendencies of investigative process remain and it is this adherence in artist and detective alike to seeing crime and its resolution as a stylistic imposition of structure on disorder that is under examination *The Complete A. W. Hornung,2015-11-10 Raffles had vanished from the face of the town and even I had no conception of his whereabouts until he cabled to me to meet the 7 31 at Charing Cross next night That was on the Tuesday before the Varsity match or a full fortnight after his mysterious disappearance The telegram was from Carlsbad of all places for Raffles of all men Of course there was only one thing that could possibly have taken so rare a specimen of physical fitness to any such pernicious spot But to my horror he emerged from the train on the Wednesday evening a cadaverous caricature of the splendid person I had gone to meet Not a word my dear Bunny till I have bitten British beef said he in tones as hollow as his cheeks No I m not going to stop to clear my baggage now You can do that for me to morrow Bunny like a dear good pal Any time you like said I giving him my arm But where shall we dine Kellner s Neapolo s The Carlton or the Club But Raffles shook his head at one and all I don t want to dine at all he said I know what I want And he led the way from the station stopping once to gloat over the sunset across Trafalgar Square and again to inhale the tarry scent of the warm wood paving which was perfume to his nostrils as the din of its traffic was music to his ears before we came to one of those political palaces which permit themselves to be included in the list of ordinary clubs Raffles to my surprise walked in as though the marble hall belonged to him and as straight as might be to the grill room where white capped cooks were making things hiss upon a silver grill He did not consult me as to what we were to have He had made up his mind about that in the train But he chose the fillet steaks himself he insisted on seeing the kidneys and had a word to say about the fried potatoes and the Welsh rarebit that was to follow And all this was as uncharacteristic of the normal Raffles who was least fastidious at the table as the sigh with which he dropped into the chair opposite mine and crossed his arms upon the cloth Fieldiana ,1995 Notes from the Leyden
