Collected Stories Uqp Fiction:

Collected Stories Beverley Farmer, 1996 Collected Stories Liam Davison, 2001 This collection of luminously evocative stories brings back into print Liam Davison's highly acclaimed The Shipwreck Party and includes a satisfying range of more recently commissioned pieces on landscape, first love and his daughter. Internationally published and the recipient of several awards including the Banjo Award for Fiction, Davison's stories share a concern for the place of the individual in history and in landscape and show an awareness of our essential vulnerability. Collected Stories Olga Masters, 1996 A collection of Australian short stories by Olga Masters. The MUP Encyclopaedia of Australian Science Fiction & Fantasy Sean McMullen, 1998 This book covers all Australian science fiction and fantasy authors, books and stories as well as important magazines, sub-genres and works published electronically. Collected Stories, 1970-1995 Janette Turner Hospital, 1995 No Marketing Blurb. Janette Turner Hospital, 1988 Reissue of a novel first published 1988. It is a story of passion and obsession that ranges in setting from an Australian rainforest to Boston and Toronto. A mysterious and elusive love affair haunts the lives of three women in Australia. Twenty years later on the other side of the world, Charade Ryan sorts through story and counter-story for her father, the legendary Nicholas, and the truth about her origins. This novel was included in the New York Times Book Review's 50 most notable novels of the year, was in the top 16 for the Booker Prize and was shortlisted for the Miles Franklin, the Banjo and the Adelaide Festival National Fiction Awards. Author has written many award-winning novels including The Last Magician and The Ivory Swing and the short story collections Dislocations and Isobars. Collected Stories Victor Kelleher, 1999 This collection contains two of Victor Kelleher's powerful books of interwoven stories, The Traveller and Micky Darlin, as well as previously uncollected pieces. Taken together they lead us on a journey, one which moves through the guilt-ridden, violent terrain of Central and Southern Africa, then shifts to an Australia which has yet to learn the lessons of pity and compassion and ends where, in a sense, it began: in the raw, all-too-human world of the poor expatriate Irish living in London in the forties. Vivid, moving and always finely crafted, this collection reveals those diverse qualities which have won Victor Kelleher major awards as a writer for both adults and children: uncompromising in their emotional honesty. Elizabeth Perkins Outrider. Collected Stories Thea Astley, 1997 A collection of stories from one of Australia's most original writers which spans thirty-five years and includes many stories that have not been previously published. Rewriting God Elaine Lindsay, 2021-11-22 Women are rarely, if ever, mentioned in commentaries upon Australian Christianity and spirituality. Only exceptional women are recognized as authorities on religious matters. Why is this so? Does it matter? Don't people from the same religious tradition share similar experiences of the divine, regardless of their gender? Rewriting God asks whether women have been writing about the divine and whether their insights are different from those contained in malestream accounts of Australian Christianity and spirituality. An analysis of the writings of popular theologians and religious commentators over the last twenty years suggests that the most popular form of spirituality among

Australian theologians is Desert Spirituality An analysis of women's autobiographical writings however suggests that the desert is irrelevant to many women's spiritual experiences This book through a close investigation of the fictions of Thea Astley Elizabeth Jolley and Barbara Hanrahan attempts to posit alternative forms of women's spirituality and to signal ways in which this spirituality is already being expressed From the evidence gathered here it becomes obvious that traditional expressions of Australian Christianity and spirituality are gender specific and that they have functioned to deny women's religious experiences and to silence their claims to equality in the sight and service of the divine It becomes obvious too that women have been developing their own forms of religious expression and that these may be expected to supplant gradually withering images of Desert Spirituality Whether this new imagery will strengthen Australian Christianity or whether it merely marks a decline in the authority of Christianity remains a moot point

The Bone Flute Nicole A. Bourke, 2004

Collected Stories Peter Carey, 1994 The best of Carey's short fiction features here drawn from work published previously in his two anthologies The Fat Man in History and War Crimes

The Tiger in the Tiger Pit Janette Turner Hospital, 2003 No Marketing Blurb

Collected Stories Lily Brett, 1999 Lily Brett is an award winning novelist and poet as well as a brilliant short story writer This collection brings together the two sequences of stories that were published as Things Could Be Worse and What God Wants following the lives of a company of Melbourne friends who survived the holocaust and the complex lives of the children they raised Always under the shadow of their terrible history the closeknit Jewish community portrayed in these stories tackles life with exuberance passion and extraordinary humour These wryly comic yet deeply moving stories explore layers of guilt and fear and above all the need for belonging to the family to the community and to the faith Publishers Weekly USA Brett writes with humour and compassion whilst maintaining a typically Jewish honesty and stridency Slav Newsbulletin
