Collected Verse Of Rudyard Kipling:

Collected Verse of Rudyard Kipling (Classic Reprint) Rudyard Kipling,2015-07-11 Excerpt from Collected Verse of Rudyard Kipling Men make them fires on the hearth Each under his roof tree And the Four Winds that rule the earth They blow the smokes to me Across the high hills and the sea And all the changeful skies The Four Winds blow the smoke to me Till the tears are in my eyes Until the tears are in my eyes And my heart is wellnigh broke For thinking on old memories That gather in the smoke With every shift of every wind The homesick memories come From every quarter of mankind Where I have made me a home Four times a fire against the cold And a roof against the rain Sorrow fourfold and joy fourfold The Four Winds bring again How can I answer which is best Of all the fires that burn I have been too often host or guest At every fire in turn About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
