Asian and other racialized identities and communities in the Americas Drawing on original research in a range of disciplines the authors will investigate 1 how the intertwined categories of race and religion have defined and been defined by global relations of power and inequality 2 how racial and religious identities shape the everyday lives of individuals and communities and 3 how racialized and marginalized communities use religion and religious discourses to contest the persistent power of racism in societies structured by inequality Taken together these essays will define a new standard of critical conversation on race and religion throughout the Americas
