Year-round Catechumenate Mary Birmingham, 2002 Christian initiation is a gradual process suited to the spiritual journey of adults that varies according to the many forms of God's grace the free cooperation of the individuals the action of the Church and the circumstances of time and place How does that fit into a program modeled after the school year It doesn't argue Mary Birmingham The Rite of Christian initiation of adults describes an initiation process that exists at the heart of the church's life and on the same schedule as the church every day all year long This book will help you imagine envision understand and implement a year round catechumenate in your parish Book cover The Catechumenal Process Overview Chart Association for Catechumenal Ministry, 2013 Guide to New Church's Teaching Series Linda Grenz, 2000-01-25 A Guide to The New Church's Teaching Series by educator Linda L Grenz offers practical suggestions for using the books of the series in the diocese or congregation A complete reference for clergy and lay leaders teachers and small group facilitators the guide provides a brief overview of each book and contains suggestions for additional activities to enhance learning It surveys a wide variety of church groups and formats for using the series from adult forums and Bible study groups to retreats and vestry meetings and recommends volumes of the series that would be most helpful in each context Finally the guide offers specific guidelines for recruiting teaching and leading small groups in a chapter describing how to create and maintain a learning environment for adults Readings in the Christian Initiation of Children Victoria M. Johnson, 2007 Originally published in 1999 The Rites of Christian Initiation was hailed for its clarity and comprehensiveness Kalian McDonnell OSB called it the best overall treatment of Christian initiation available and Paul Bradshaw predicted it would be the standard textbook on the subject for very many years to come The current edition draws on new translations of early texts on baptism as well as recent scholarship on the early traditions in the East and West It is sure to replace itself as the new standard reference on the rites of Christian initiation Maxwell E Johnson's expanded and revised text provides a more complete view of the history and interpretation of the rites in the Eastern Church including two chapters that explore the pre Nicene Eastern and Western traditions in detail Revisiting the theology of baptism this edition also provides more nuanced positions on the Eastern and Western traditions Finally recent liturgical developments in American Protestant churches particularly Lutheran as well as the ongoing development of the RCIA and confirmation practices of Catholics made it necessary to revisit the place and meaning of these rites in the church today Maxwell E Johnson PhD is professor of liturgy at the University of Notre Dame and an ordained minister of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America He has published in Worship and is the editor of and contributor to Living Water Sealing Spirit Readings on Christian Initiation Liturgical Press 1995 and the revised and expanded edition of E C Whitaker Documents of the Baptismal Liturgy Liturgical Press and S P C K 2003 to which this study serves as a companion volume The Catechumenal Process Susanna E. Lewinski, Ron Lewinski, 1994 Describes the stages of the catechumenal process and the ministries involved Signed, Sealed, Delivered Sharon Ely Pearson, 2014-05-10 An all in one volume sharing the history practice and viewpoints of Confirmation in the Episcopal Church and the first book on the subject for at least 15 years Resolutions regarding Confirmation are coming to the 2015 General Convention Includes questions for reflection and study by individuals and groups Many clergy and educators would say that the rite of Confirmation in the Episcopal Church today is a sacrament in search of a meaning Some believe Confirmation is an essential rite of passage for adult leadership in the governance of the church Some believe it is a rite that no longer has a place in the life of the church understanding the importance that Baptism now holds in the 1979 Book of Common Prayer's ecclesiology Following a history of how the rite of Confirmation came about and its implications for youth and adults in the church today voices in the Episcopal Church bishops liturgical scholars confirmation leaders and youth themselves offer fresh viewpoints here in a conversational format to engage the reader Mediating Faith Clint Schnekloth, William H. Willimon, 2014 The church struggles with media Whether it is a denomination negotiating the 24 hour news cycle or a church evaluating how Facebook or online games are influencing the youth group media is raising questions and placing demands on communities of faith in ways that could not have been imagined just 20 years ago Thus the importance of understanding media for the church has never been greater In Mediating Faith church leaders of all kinds will find Clint Schnekloth an engaging and insightful guide to this new and sometimes wondrous world In doing so he offers an evaluation and theological response to the trans media era that highlights its potential to transform our work and world Far from frightening Schnekloth highlights the opportunities and the riches of this fascinating time Super flumina Issue 2 CMMR, 2020-02-20 The Community of Mary Mother of the Redeemer has finally released the second issue of their journal Super flumina A journal of theological commentary and crankyness This Lenten issue is all of the commentary without sacrificing any of the crankyness Where else can you read find commentary drawing on Maximus the Confessor and Mary of Egypt and that looks at the cosmic power of sin through the Wire and argues that
