An Encyclopaedia of Architecture, Historical, Theoretical, and Practical Joseph Gwilt, 1876      Historical Boundaries, Narrative Forms Everett Zimmerman, 2007 This collection of twelve essays by colleagues, students, and friends of Everett Zimmerman treats four topics that Zimmerman explored during his career: the representation of the self in narratives, the early British novel, and related forms; their epistemological and generic borders, and their intellectual and cultural contexts. The collection is divided into two sections: Boundaries and Forms. The essays in Boundaries explore how epistemological and narrative distinctions between history and fiction meet or overlap in the novel's relationship to other forms, including providential history, travel narratives, utopias, autobiography, and visual art. In Forms, the contributors investigate fictional, historical, and material forms, the impact those cultural phenomena had on the meaning and value attributed to literary works, and how such forms arose in response to historical conditions. The essays describe the historical range of Zimmerman's work, beginning with Defoe and ending with Coetzee, and treat such key writers of the long eighteenth century as Fielding, Richardson, Walpole, Austen, and Scott. Bakersfield, Robert Mayer is Professor of English and Director of the Screen Studies Program at Oklahoma State University.
