Counterpath Traveling With Jacques Derrida:

Counterpath Catherine Malabou, Jacques Derrida, 2004 This book explores the idea of traveling with the philosopher of deconstruction Malabou's readerly text of quotations and commentary demonstrates how Derrida's work functions as a counter Odysseus through meaning theorizing and thematizing notions of arrival drifting derivation and catastrophe

Derrida's Legacies Simon Glendinning, Robert Eaglestone, 2008-01-22 This volume brings together some of the most well known and highly respected commentators on the work of Jacques Derrida from Britain and America in a series of essays written to commemorate the life and come to terms with the death of one of the most important intellectual presences of our time The sometimes personal always insightful essays reflect on the multiple ways in which Derrida's work has marked intellectual culture in general and the literary and philosophical culture of Britain and America in particular The outstanding contributors offer an interdisciplinary view investigating areas such as deconstruction ethics time irony technology location and truth This book provides a rich and faithful context for thinking about the significance of Derrida's own work as an event that arrived and perhaps still remains to arrive in our time

Shakespeare and Continental Philosophy Richard Wilson, Jennifer Ann Bates, 2014-09-10 Essays by leading authors on Shakespeare drawing on contemporary and early continental philosophy This collection of 15 essays by celebrated authors in Shakespeare studies and in continental philosophy develops different aspects of the interface between continental thinking and Shakespeare's plays The authors draw from current continental philosophy e.g. Lacan Foucault Derrida as well as from the 19th century continental tradition e.g. Hegel Kierkegaard and from the early roots of continental tradition e.g. Aristotle Ibn Sina The chapters address the span of the tragedies comedies and history plays in the light of thinkers as diverse as Aristotle Ibn Sina and Jean Luc Marion Hegel Kierkegaard Schopenhauer Schmitt Arendt Lacan Levinas Foucault and Derrida Key Features The blend of new work 10 unpublished essays and classic position papers 5 reprints provides a thorough overview of Shakespeare and continental thought Sheds new light on Shakespeare and on continental philosophy Authors in the collection are leaders in each discipline in the US and UK Europe and include Edward S Casey Howard Caygill Paul A Kottman Julia Reinhard Lupton Christopher Norris Nicholas Royle Catherine Belsey

Derrida Simon Wortham, 2008-07-23 Derrida wrote a vast number of texts for particular events across the world as well as a series of works that portray him as a voyager As an Algerian migrant a postcolonial outsider and an idiomatic writer who felt tied to a language that was not his own and as a figure obsessed by the singularity of the literary or philosophical event Derrida emerges as one whose thought always arrives on occasion But how are we to understand the event in Derrida Is there a risk that such stories of Derrida's work tend to misunderstand the essential unpredictability at work in the conditions of his thought And how are we to reconcile the importance in Derrida of the unknowable event the pull of the singular with deconstruction's critical and philosophical rigour and its claims to rethink more systematically the ethico-political field This book argues that this negotiation in fact allows deconstruction to reformulate the very questions that we associate with ethical and political responsibility and shows this to be the central interest in Derrida's work

To Follow Peggy Kamuf, 2012-10-12 This book collects ten years of Peggy Kamuf's writing on the work and friendship of Jacques Derrida. The majority of the chapters discuss a key aspect of Derrida's thought either from a single work or across several texts. Kamuf engages with a broad array of texts.

Apparitions--of Derrida's Other Kas Saghafi, 2010 How does Derrida write of and on the other? Apparitions examines exemplary instances of the relation to the other: the relation of Moses to God, Derrida's friendship with Jean-Luc Nancy, Derrida's relation to a recently departed actress caught on video to demonstrate how Derrida forces us to reconceive who or what the other may be. For Derrida, the singularity of the other includes not only the formal or logical sense of alterity, the otherness of the human other, but also the otherness of the nonliving, the no longer living, or the not yet alive. Addressing Derrida's readings of Husserl, Levinas, Barthes, Blanchot, and Nancy, this book explores the apparitions of the other by attending to the mode of appearing, the phenomenality and visibility of the other. The book also demonstrates that video and photography display an intimate relation to spectrality as well as a structural relation to the absolute singularity of the other.

Thought-Images Gerhard Richter, 2007 In this book, Gerhard Richter explores the aesthetic and political ramifications of the literary genre of the Denkbild or thought image as it was employed by four major German Jewish writers and philosophers of the first half of the twentieth century: Theodor W. Adorno, Walter Benjamin, Ernst Bloch, and Siegfried Kracauer. The Denkbild is a poetic mode of writing, a brief snapshot in prose that stages the interrelation of literary, philosophical, political, and cultural insights. Richter's careful analysis of the linguistic characteristics of this mode of writing sheds new light on pivotal concerns of modernity, including the fractured cityscape, philosophical problems of modern music, the experience of exiled homelessness, and the disaster of Auschwitz. Thought Images not only reorients our understanding of the Frankfurt School of Critical Theory in important ways but also establishes significant links between these writers and contemporary French thinkers such as Jacques Derrida.

Derrida and the Time of the Political Pheng Cheah, Suzanne Guerlac, 2009-01-16 A collection assessing the implications of Derrida's thought for contemporary political theory and politics.

French XX Bibliography William J. Thompson, 2006-09 Provides a listing of available books, articles, and book reviews concerned with French literature since 1885. This work is a reference source in the study of modern French literature and culture. The bibliography is divided into three major divisions: general studies, author subjects arranged alphabetically, and cinema.

The Honor of Thinking Rodolphe Gasché, 2007 The Honor of Thinking evaluates the concepts and discourses of critique theory and philosophy in light of the exigencies of what Martin Heidegger and the French post-Heideggerian thinkers have established about the nature and the tasks of thinking.

Structures of Memory Jennifer A. Jordan, 2006 Structures of Memory turns to the landscape of contemporary Berlin particularly places marked by the presence of the Nazi regime in order to understand how some places of great cruelty or great heroism are forgotten by all but eyewitnesses while others become the site of public ceremonies museums or commemorative monuments Becoming Visionary Eyal Peretz,2008 How is one to think the significance of the art of film for philosophy What would it mean to introduce film as a question into the heart of the philosophical enterprise This book develops a matrix for thinking the relations between philosophy and film and by extension between philosophy and the arts The Ethics of Emmanuel Levinas Diane Perpich,2008 This work offers a new interpretation of what Levinas means when he says that we are infinitely responsible to the other person Anatomy of the Passions François Delaporte,2008 Through the pioneering work of Duchenne de Boulogne François Delaporte provides a remarkable philosophical and historical examination of expressive physiology during the mid 19th century and considers the science of emotion as a means of revealing inner life thoughts feelings upon the surface of the face

Displacements and Transformations in Caribbean Cultures Lizabeth Paravisini-Gebert,Ivette Romero-Cesareo,2008 The geopolitical contours of the Caribbean have changed greatly over the centuries This wide ranging volume aims to reflect such change as well as the diversity of the region Covering all parts of the region and most linguistic groups the essays address a variety of topics from the colonial slave trade to AIDS in the 21st century Reflections of Equality Christoph Menke,2006 The book argues that the center of political modernity is determined by a conflictive relation between the liberal core concept of political equality and the idea of individuality A Turbulent Decade Remembered Diana Sorensen,2007 A Turbulent Decade Remembered studies the 1960s the continental moment that marked Latin America s full entry into both modernity and post modernity in the international arena Delving into scenes of importance for the intersection of aesthetics and politics the book addresses the impact of the Cuban Revolution on the imagination of the decade the student movements of 1968 in their international context and the tragic events of Tlatelolco memorialized in different ways by Mexico s greatest intellectuals In examining the construction of the great novels usually identified as the Boom the book revises the critical tradition established since the late sixties rethinking the oft cited magical realism while considering the role of the press prizes gendered networks of solidarity and competition and the emergence of a literary star system The implications of all these forces of the republic of letters are set in dialogue with an analysis of the major novels of the decade with particular attention to their literary craft their manipulation of space voice and varied readerships The Price of Truth Marcel Hénaff,Jean-Louis Morhange,2010 Without stigmatizing commercial activity this book takes a philosophical and anthropological look at the universe of the gift debt and money in the West from ancient Greece to the present in order to examine how and why knowledge has long been assumed to be priceless
