Country Depots In The Connecticut Hills:

Country Depots in the Connecticut Hills Robert F. Lord,1996      Hidden History of Litchfield County Peter C. Vermilyea,2014-11-04 Local historian Peter C Vermilyea tells stories of some forgotten moments in Litchfield County CT from Native American legends to Cold War relics Traces of Litchfield County s past are hidden in plain sight Vestiges of long abandoned railroad tracks crisscross the county while a decaying and unmarked cinder block structure in Warren is all that remains of a cornerstone of national defense All but forgotten today a fire roared through Winsted in 1908 causing residents to flee their rooms at the Odd Fellows boardinghouse In Bantam art deco chairs made by the Warren McArthur Corporation prompted the War Department to order bomber seats from the company during World War II Author Peter C Vermilyea explores these and other obscure tales from the history of Litchfield County Connecticut      Route 7, The Road North Laurie J. Bepler, Virginia B. Bepler,1999-12-01 From the 1890s through the 1920s the postcard was an extraordinarily popular means of communication and many of the postcards produced during this golden age can today be considered works of art Postcard photographers traveled the length and breadth of the nation snapping photographs of busy street scenes documenting local landmarks and assembling crowds of local children only too happy to pose for a picture These images printed as postcards and sold in general stores across the country survive as telling reminders of an important era in America s history This fascinating new history of Route 7 from Norwalk to Canaan Connecticut showcases more than two hundred of the best vintage postcards available      The Station Agent and the American Railroad Experience H. Roger Grant,2023-01-03 Before the widespread popularity of automobiles buses and trucks freight and passenger trains bound the nation together The Station Agent and the American Railroad Experience explores the role of local frontline workers that kept the country s vast rail network running Virtually every community with a railroad connection had a depot and an agent These men and occasionally women became the official representatives of their companies and were highly respected They met the public when they sold tickets planned travel itineraries and reported freight and express shipments Additionally their first hand knowledge of Morse code made them the most informed in town But as times changed so did the role of and the need for the station agent Beautifully illustrated with dozens of vintage photographs The Station Agent and the American Railroad Experience brings back to life the day to day experience of the station agent and captures the evolution of railroad operations as technology advanced      New Haven Passenger Trains Peter E.
