books dealing with Jewish sports in Germany and an article on the importance of sports within Jewish religion that contradicted the image mentioned above let an increased interest in the specific mind set of Jewish Americans towards physical activities develop Due to the complexity of the topic and the extent of this paper only certain aspects can be presented in the discourse unfortunately excluding other interesting ones The focus will be on the actual participation and achievements as well as attitudes of Jews towards sports and the effects of this field on the integration of Jewish immigrants The time frame has been limited to the period between the first large waves of immigration and the end of World War II because of the adjustment of Jewish sports to general developments thereafter Nevertheless some general tendencies of the post World War II decades will be discussed Background information on the general historical context
