America's Gilded Age Frederick Platt,1976 America's Gilded Age Frederick Platt,1976 American Architects and Texts Juan Pablo Bonta,1996 In this volume the author analyzes 400 architectural books and articles published over the past 150 years to reveal changing societal preferences in architecture and to measure the reputations of individual architects the text includes a ranked list of the 100 most famous architects Art Nouveau Gabriel P. Weisberg,Elizabeth K. Menon,2013-09-05 First published in 1998 Design reform in the fields of architecture and the decorative or applied arts became objectified through writings published during the period of 1885 to 1910 This investigation includes but is not limited to Art Nouveau in France and Belgium and the arts and crafts movement in England and the United States Even though the similar processes of creativity and shared goals of Art Nouveau and the arts and crafts movement have long been recognized attempts to explore their origins and their points of interrelation with the broader scope of art history have been largely unsuccessful until now "Architecture, Design and Craft in Toronto 1900-1940 " Alla Myzelev,2017-07-05 Toronto the largest and one of the most multicultural cities in Canada boasts an equally interesting and diverse architectural heritage Architecture Design and Craft in Toronto 1900 1940 tells a story of the significant changes in domestic life in the first 40 years of the twentieth century Adopting a multidisciplinary approach to studies of residential spaces the author examines how questions of modernity and modern living influenced not only architectural designs but also interior furnishings modes of transportation and ways to spend leisure time The book discusses several case studies some of which are known both locally and internationally for example Casa Loma while others such as Guild of All Arts or Sherwood have been virtually unstudied by historians of visual culture The overall goal of the book is to put Toronto on the map of scholars of urban design and architecture and to uncover previously unknown histories of design craft and domesticity in Toronto This study will be of interest not only to the academic community namely architects designers craftspeople and scholars of these disciplines along with social historians but also the general public interested in local history and or visual culture A Field Guide to American Houses Virginia McAlester,Arcie Lee McAlester,1984 The guide that enables you to identify and place in their historic and architectural contexts the houses you see in your neighborhood or in your travels across America 17th century to the present *Main Currents in American Thought: 1620-1800. Kathrens,2005 With anecdotes about the owners brightening the survey of the mansions their construction and architectural features this text contains 43 entries each illustrated with a wealth of period photos of the building s exterior and especially interior rooms and decor An introduction discusses New York City s architectural history An appendix with School(house) Design and Curriculum in Nineteenth Century America Joseph da Silva,2018-08-21 This book examines the formative relationship between nineteenth century American school architecture and curriculum While other studies have queried the intersections of school architecture and curriculum they approach them without consideration for the ways in which their relationships are culturally formative or how they reproduce or resist extant inequities in the United States Da Silva addresses this gap in the school design archive with a cross disciplinary approach taking to task the cultural consequences of the relationship between these two primary elements of teaching and learning in a hotspot of American education the nineteenth century Providing a historical and theoretical framework for practitioners and scholars in evaluating the politics of modern American school design the book holds a mirror to the oft criticized state of American education today
