Architecture, Power and Religion in Lebanon Ward Vloeberghs,2015-11-24 In Architecture Power and Religion in Lebanon Ward Vloeberghs explores Rafiq Hariri s patronage and his posthumous legacy to demonstrate how religious architecture becomes a site for power struggles in contemporary Beirut By tracing the 150 year long history of the Muhammad al Amin Mosque Lebanon s principal Sunni mosque and the subsequent development of the site as a commemoration venue this account offers a unique illustration of how architecture religion and power become discursively and visually entangled Set in a multi confessional society marked by social inequalities and political fragmentation this interdisciplinary study analyses how architectural practice and urban reconfigurations reveal a nascent personality cult communal mourning and the consolidation of political territory in relation to constantly shifting circumstances
