Amy's Family:

Amy's Family Martha Flowers Wallen, 2004-10-04 This coming of age story is told through the eyes of the author's daughter Amy who is five years old when the book begins. She lives with her family in Thibodaux Louisiana. Amy knows her family will move sooner or later because of her dad's work. But her dad's transfer to a small town in northeast Nevada is a daunting prospect for the entire family after spending so many years in the warm temperate climate of the friendly Cajun country. The move to Nevada begins a journey for Amy and her family that will take them to Nigeria, Peru, Bolivia, and finally to a small town in Oklahoma. As Amy learns about new and different cultures, she develops tolerance for the differences and a more perceptive attitude toward other people of the world. When her older brother and sister go away to school in Switzerland, she's suddenly thrust into the life of an only child. On her journey toward adulthood, she encounters the usual hardships and disappointments of growing up, along with amazing adventures travelling in foreign lands. She learns to take the problems in stride and enjoy the adventure. Her experiences are amusing, exciting, some very sweet, a few a bit scary, and all fun to read.

Silk Shaun Burgoyne, 2021-10-01 Shaun Burgoyne, inspirational footballer, leader of his people, devoted family man, is one of the most respected players in AFL history, on and off the field. The man they call Silk was the ultimate team player, versatile, highly skilled, and hard at the contest, with an enviable reputation for being able to stand up in big moments. Burgoyne is a proud Indigenous man with a football pedigree that is a story in itself. Starting with his father's time at the Koonibba Roosters, the oldest surviving Indigenous footy club in Australia, the Burgoyne name is directly linked to Gavin Wanganeen, Eddie Betts, Graham Johncock, and many other AFL stars. In his 400 plus games, Burgoyne had only two coaches. He reveals the tough love dished out by Port Adelaide coach Mark Choco Williams and the left-field techniques of legendary Hawthorn coach Alastair Clarkson. He shares how he changed from star midfielder to role player, a move that enabled him to overcome injuries and become one of the best impact players the game has seen. Burgoyne's story isn't just about winning four premierships and becoming the Indigenous games record holder. He experienced the ugliness of racist taunts from growing up in Port Lincoln, to bearing witness to the fallout of Adam Goodes' public stance on racism. The way Burgoyne sees it, we can't change history, but we must learn from it and work towards reconciliation to a position of mutual respect and understanding. This modest champion shares what he has learnt to show others what is possible when you seize opportunities, are willing to put in the work, and surround yourself with the right people, family, friends, teammates, mentors, who will inspire.
