Nurses engaged in the policy arena often are asked to provide information on a health care topic of interest to policy makers. This is frequently accomplished through developing a policy brief. A policy brief advocates for a particular recommendation (prior to the enactment of a policy). Learning how to write a policy brief in a clear, succinct, scholarly, and professional manner is an essential skill for advanced practice nurses.

For this Assignment, you will assess one of the recommendations from the Institute of Medicine's The Future of Nursing: Leading Change, Advancing Health: Report Recommendations.

You will then develop a policy brief to advocate for this recommendation (the written policy brief is due in Week 7).

To prepare:

Review the Lavis et al. article on preparing and writing policy briefs provided in the Learning Resources (See attached file).

Select one of the recommendations within the IOM The Future of Nursing: Leading Change, Advancing Health: Report Recommendations to focus on for this assignment.
