Vikram Seth's Poetics of Pastiche Mélanie Heydari, 2024-09-21 Vikram Seth is a critical enigma He is recognized as one of the most important Indian Anglophone authors of his generation his individual works have been widely reviewed yet his work has rarely been approached as a whole and remains surprisingly understudied Perhaps the chief reason for the paucity of critical response to the full compass of Seth's work is his disregard for intellectual fashion Indeed Seth is at once very popular and deliberately unfashionable His literary affiliations are conservative seemingly uninterested in any revisionary narrative he is equally unconcerned by the interpenetration of cultures in our globalized world representing assimilation rather than cultural difference He defies the expectations of both postcolonial and world literature therefore to discuss his critical neglect is to shed light on the limitations of these labels As the most thorough attempt to map a general poetics in Seth's work this study the first of its kind on this writer develops a new critical methodology to capture the nuances of Seth's literary strategies It provides scholars and students insight into the key features of Seth's work and uncovers a consistent authorial strategy running through his seemingly disconnected body of work namely a systematic use of intertextual practices

Encyclopedic Dictionary of Diasporic Indian English Writing Manju Jaidka, Tej N. Dhar, Natasha Vashisht, 2025-05-15 The Handbook of Diasporic Indian Writing in English is an essential reference to Indian literature It features alphabetical entries of Indian writers who have bridged the gap between cultures and redefined language boundaries As the field of diasporic writing continues to expand and intersect with various branches of English and Cultural studies it anticipates a growing market It offers a unique and compelling perspective on the global tapestry of literature It draws on various interdisciplinary approaches including postcolonial theory cultural studies and digital humanities to offer fresh and innovative perspectives on the literature It is an indispensable resource for research scholars of literary studies and related disciplines like cultural studies and postcolonial studies

The Contemporary Literature-Music Relationship Hazel Smith, 2016-04-20 This book explores the relationship between words and music in contemporary texts examining in particular the way that new technologies are changing the literature music relationship It brings an eclectic and novel range of interdisciplinary theories to the area of musico literary studies drawing from the fields of semiotics disability studies musicology psychoanalysis music psychology emotion and affect theory new media cosmopolitanism globalization ethnicity and biraciality Chapters range from critical analyses of the representation of music and the musical profession in contemporary novels to examination of the forms and cultural meanings of contemporary intermedia and multimedia works The book argues that conjunctions between words and music create emergent structures and meanings that can facilitate culturally transgressive and boundary interrogating effects In particular it conceptualises ways in which word music relationships can facilitate cross cultural exchange as musico literary miscegenation using interracial sexual relationships as a metaphor Smith also inspects the dynamics of improvisation and composition and the different ways they intersect with performance Furthermore the book explores the huge changes that computer based real time algorithmic text and music generation are making to the literature music nexus This volume provides fascinating insight into the relationship between literature and music and will be of interest to those fields as well as New Media and Performance Studies Adorno and the Architects of Late Style in India Tania Roy,2021-03-11 In the postcolonial world the claim to an emancipated national culture was bound to its aesthetic correlate the unfolding time and experiments of the twentieth century novel Today the constructs of both novel and a progressivist national project function in all their closures within global scales of economic disparity and violent exclusion What is the fate of a literary canon when it is no longer capable of delineating a future or otherwise is bound to reproduce the failures of the past within its own inscriptions How do we experience our current globalist moment when lived inequities of gender labour and ethnicity emerge in a text s inability to speak on time When does artistic or literary failure become the measure of a work s accomplishment And what sort of liberation is envisioned by works that refuse the imperatives of progress and independence which embrace the appearance of obsolescence by rejecting values of artistic freedom originality and innovation These are some of the provocations that arise from T W Adorno s idea of late style for our own conjuncture a properly postcolonial context in which every conceptual or expressive engagement is articulated through an awareness of eroded national promise Examining works by Rabindranath Tagore Mulk Raj Anand Vikram Seth and the photography of Dayanita Singh Tania Roy examines the delayed claims of literary and artistic modernity in India through Adorno s category of late style In striking readings of Adorno and his interlocutors the book extends a poetics of lateness toward a speculative history of the twentieth century novel in India Comprised of critically neglected selections from the oeuvres of canonical writers Adorno and the Architects of Late Style in India proposes that under conditions of advanced capitalism logics of redundancy overtake the novel s foundational reference point in the nation to produce altered frames of thought and sensibility and therein a reader who might encounter anew the figures of an unfulfilled twentieth century
