Constructing Field Ethnographic Fieldwork In Contemporary World:

Constructing the Field Vered Amit,2000 In an increasingly globalised world how is the nature of ethnographic fieldwork changing In this book anthropologists provide a thorough and critical appraisal of what fieldwork is and what it should be Constructing the Field ,2000 Handbook of Research Methods for Tourism and Hospitality

Management Robin Nunkoo,2018-07-27 As research in tourism and hospitality reaches maturity a growing number of methodological approaches are being utilized and in addition this knowledge is dispersed across a wide range of journals Consequently there is a broad and multidisciplinary community of tourism and hospitality researchers whom at present need to look widely for support on methods In this volume researchers fulfil a pressing need by clearly presenting methodological issues within tourism and hospitality research alongside particular methods and share their experiences of what works what does not work and where challenges and innovations lie Global Heritage Assemblages Christoph Rausch,2016-11-25

Based on multi sited anthropological fieldwork this book describes how various governmental intergovernmental and non governmental actors engage with colonial and post colonial built heritage found in Eritrea Tanzania Niger and the Republic of the Congo showing how this engagement produces problematizations of the modern which ultimately indicate a need to rescue modernity from its dominant conception as an all encompassing epochal and spatial culture In Foreign Fields

Thomas F. Carter,2011-07-08 This book examines the lives decisions and challenges faced by transnational sport migrants those professionals working in the sports industry who cross borders as part of their professional lives Despite a great deal of romance surrounding international celebrity athletes the vast majority of transnational sport migrants players journalists coaches administrators and medical personnel toil far away from the limelight Thomas F Carter traces their lives routes and experiences documenting their travels and travails He argues that far from the ease of mobility that celebrity sports stars enjoy the vast majority of transnational sports migrants make huge sacrifices and labour under political restrictions often enforced by sport s governing bodies Insider Research on Migration and Mobility Lejla Voloder,Liudmila

Kirpitchenko,2016-05-23 With an increasing proportion of migration and mobility field studies being conducted by migrants and members of ethnic minorities in home contexts the implications of insider research are increasingly subject critical scrutiny Researchers who may share migration experiences or cultural ethnic linguistic or religious identities with their participants are exploring the means ethics and politics of mobilizing insider capital for the purpose of gaining access to and representing research participants Bringing together the latest international scholarship in the sociology and anthropology of migration this volume explores the complexities joys and frustrations of conducting insider research The book offers analyses of key methodological ethical and epistemological challenges faced by migration researchers as they question the ways in which they come to identify with their research topic or their participants Addressing questions of identity and categorization ethics and methodology epistemology and situated knowledge Insider Research on Migration and Mobility will appeal to scholars across the social sciences with interests in migration mobilities diaspora studies and ethnic and racial identities as well as those interested in qualitative research design and analysis

Children as Social Butterflies Ursina Jaeger, 2024-11-15 Children as Social Butterflies examines how kindergarten children experience negotiate and claim belonging in a diverse and stigmatized Swiss neighborhood Schools as formative instances of social belonging are particularly important where children with different migration histories are educated together Childhood scholar Ursina Jaeger followed individual children in a kindergarten class from day one of their school enrollment and accompanied them to extracurricular activities to ballet classes to their children s rooms to the social welfare office or on family visits abroad Based on data from several years of this child centered and multisited research Children as Social Butterflies offers a vivid ethnography with unique insights into the everyday lives of young children in a diverse neighborhood The book provides an analytical language informed by theories of social differentiation to grasp complex configurations of social belonging and shows the full potential of ethnographic research with young children Jaeger thus offers a dynamic reading of migration schooling and childhood that is strongly informed by the experience of working with young children The book provides educators childhood scholars and parents alike with suggestions for dealing with migration related social differentiation This book is also freely available online as an open access digital edition published with the support of the Swiss National Science Foundation

Anthropological Fieldwork Dimitrina Spencer, James Peter Davies, 2010 Exploring the emotions of anthropologists arising during fieldwork and their role in how we gain ethnographic knowledge this book explains how they manage emotions or allow them to unfold as vehicles of knowing

Deterritorialisations ... Mark Dorrian, Gillian Rose, 2003 In recent years landscape has become increasingly recognised as a topic of central importance to a wide variety of disciplines To a large degree this recognition has been based upon an expanding appreciation of the political aspects of landscape its ideological character and effects Landscapes and Politics is an innovative cross disciplinary volume of new writing which brings together in a strategic and productive encounter a broad variety of critical work currently being done in this field With 28 papers and five photo essays Landscapes and Politics presents material by scholars and practitioners from anthropology archaeology architecture art history cultural studies English and American literature film studies fine art geography history landscape architecture philosophy political science and religious studies As an important marker of current methodologies research and practice across these different disciplinary areas Landscapes and Politics is an invaluable resource It will be of interest to all those concerned with current discourses and debates on landscape and its representation

Caribbean Narratives of Belonging Jean Besson, Karen Fog Olwig, 2005 Contemporary Caribbean society emerged within a complex framework of extensive and exploitive interconnections on a global scale and unequal inter cultural social relations at the local level This book explores the communities of belonging that Caribbean people have created and sustained as they have carved out a life for themselves within this context of social economic and cultural complexity Caribbean narratives offer a fertile ground in which to explore notions and practices of belonging because they are rich in empirical data on the lives experienced by various Caribbean people At the same time they point to the shared socio cultural orders that give meaning and purpose to these lives By analyzing narratives as accounts of lived lives as a way of structuring the past and as modes of communication and performance the chapters in this volume develop important insights into Caribbean culture and bring fresh perspectives to cross cultural research on narratives and their articulation with fields of social relations and sites of cultural identity The sixteen chapters by anthropologists geographers historians and sociologists are based on in depth research from throughout the Caribbean region and among Caribbean migrants and their descendents in Europe and North America

Comparative Sociology ,2008 Anthropos ,2009 Dancing from Past to Present Theresa Buckland,2006 This groundbreaking collection combines ethnographic and historic strategies to reveal how dance plays crucial cultural roles in various regions of the world including Tonga Java Bosnia Herzegovina New Mexico India Korea Macedonia and England The essays find a balance between past and present and examine how dance and bodily practices are core identity and cultural creators Reaching beyond the typically Eurocentric view of dance Dancing from Past to Present opens a world of debate over the role dance plays in forming and expressing cultural identities around the world Bijdragen tot de taal-, land- en volkenkunde van Nederlandsch-Indië ,2002 Literatuur overzicht issued with v 95

International Bibliography of Book Reviews of Scholarly Literature Chiefly in the Fields of Arts and Humanities and the Social Sciences ,2000 The Trouble With Community Vered Amit,Nigel Rapport,2002-08-20 Community is one of social science s longest standing concepts The assumption of much social science has been that humans belong in communities as social and cultural beings The trouble with community is that this is not necessarily so the personal social networks of individuals actual experience crosscut collective categories situations and institutions Communities can prove unviable or imprisoning the reality of community life and identity can often be very different from the ideology and the ideal In this book the authors draw on their ethnographic experiences to reappraise the concept and the reality of community in the light of globalisation religious fundamentalism identity politics and renascent localisms How might anthropology better apprehend social identities which are intrinsically plural transgressive and ironic What has anthropology to say about the way in which civil society might hope to accommodate the ongoing construction and the rightful expression of such migrant identities
