Construction Litigation:

Construction Disputes Thomas J. Kelleher, Brian G. Corgan, William E. Dorris, 2002-01-01 All areas of construction litigation are covered in this two volume set starting with case analysis pretrial activities and special forum issues The authors continue with an in depth discussion of the difficult presentation issues for delay and acceleration claims lost productivity claims and establishing damages The final section of the text covers trial and other issues including direct and cross examination appeals and settlement and releases Practical examples of and checklists for the drafting of many of the key documents used in construction litigation are also included Construction Disputes Robert F. Cushman, John D. Carter, Douglas F. Coppi, Paul J. Gorman, 2001-01-01 In compiling the third and entirely revised edition of Construction Disputes Representing the Contractor the editors have sought out as specialists in their field contributing authors who are not only experienced in resolving construction disputes but also known and respected for their expertise in specific critical areas commonly encountered in construction litigation Although intended primarily to assist attorneys this book also provides a useful desk reference for anyone whose activities touch on long term contract matters and gives individual contractors a better understanding of how their actions may affect this increasingly important part of operations Construction Litigation Barry B. Bramble, 1989 This text covers from pretrial activities to evidentiary concerns forum trial and appeal issues and many other topics It includes tips and tools for construction professionals who must present their positions to opposing parties in negotiations Illustrative graphics for presenting claims and providing damages are included Avoiding or Minimizing Construction Litigation Jonathan J. Sweet, 1993-03-10 Enables non attorneys in the construction industry to understand how the construction process and law interact in order to resolve disputes without going to court Analyzes specific issues concerning contracts subcontracting tort claims insurance and bonds Recommends strategies for avoiding or terminating litigation if a claim arises Includes actual case studies and a complete reference of relevant AIA EJCDC and NSPE documents Construction Litigation Michael T. Callahan, Robert Frank Cushman, Kenneth M. Cushman, Stephen B. Cook, 2019-12-16 Construction Litigation Representing the Owner is a comprehensive resource written by nationally recognized construction litigators who examine each of the participating segments of the construction process They describe how owners can avoid costly and time consuming litigation and if necessary how owners can best protect themselves if litigation becomes unavoidable It also seeks to forewarn owners of potential areas of concern and how to handle such problems should concrete disputes actually arise The Third Edition continues to stress the importance of risk management techniques This includes the use of liability insurance and the problems of the owner qualifying as an additional insured under a contractor s or subcontractor s policy and risk management through indemnity agreements Target audience Practitioners in the field of real estate development Construction Litigation John D. Carter, Robert Frank Cushman, William J. Palmer, 1992 Recommended Procedures for Settlement of Underground Construction Disputes , 1977
