Walworth County Fair Taylor Pipes, 2005 Dubbed the Great Fair in 1918 the Walworth County Fair is one of the largest in the United States The fair festivities have been summer's final fling and a chance to welcome the coming autumn for generations of local residents and visitors alike Each Labor Day weekend thousands of enthusiasts from across the Midwest flock to the city of Elkhorn in early years 19 special trains even shuttled visitors from southeastern Wisconsin and every town along the length of the state line Through a collection of 200 vintage images author Taylor Pipes details the fair's rich history from its founding in 1851 to the present Photographs depict celebration and fire 4H judging and showing animals and the rides and food booths that form an integral backdrop for any fair The County Fair Charles Barnard, Neil Burgess, 1922

The Orange County Fair Chris Epting, 2015-07-20 The Orange County Fair is one of Southern California's most anticipated summer events From its first year in 1890 with a few livestock exhibits and horse races the fair evolved into what is now a month long extravaganza of rides games and entertainment that still celebrates the importance of local agriculture Millions of visitors have crowded the grounds over the years to enjoy the spectacle of everything from ostrich races and demolition derbies to its unique Centennial Farm and the time honored All Alaskan pig race Author Chris Epting recounts more than a century of community history and revelry at the OC Fair First Annual Meeting of the Carroll County Fair Association to be Held on the Fair Grounds, Near Carrollton, Ky., Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday & Friday, September 5, 6, 7, and 8, 1871 Carroll County Fair Association (Ky.). Meeting, 1871 Remembering the Centennial United States. Forest Service, 1993 Illinois Fairs and Festivals, 1999 What's Wrong at the County Fair?, 1991 There are five things wrong in each colorful county fair scene Can you find them all The Unchosen Ones R. J. Kern, In 2016 award winning Minnesota based photographer R J Kern made portraits of youth contestants at Minnesota county fairs Each participant some as young as four years old had spent a year raising an animal which they had then entered into a 4 H livestock competition None of the youths who sat for him had succeeded in winning an award despite the obvious care they had given to their animals The Unchosen Ones depicts the bloom of youth and the mettle of the kids who grow up on farms reminding us how resilient children can be when confronted with life's inevitable disappointments The formal qualities of the lighting and setting endow these young people with a gravitas beyond their years revealing self directed dedication in some and in others perhaps the pressures of traditions imposed upon them Kern's beautiful portraits capture a particular America a rural world and a time in life when the layered emotions of youth are laid bare Four years later in 2020 Kern returned to photograph his young subjects The most recent photographs show how the children have grown into adolescence or young adulthood some of them have continued to pursue animal husbandry while others have developed other interests It is likely that some of these kids will not choose to continue running their family farms an unpredictable and demanding way to make a living These diptychs are punctuated by lush landscapes of the farms that are their homes As Kern made the second group of photographs he asked his young subjects what they had carried forward from their previous experience What were their thoughts their dreams and their goals for the future How would they fit into the future of agricultural America
