The Canadian Short Story Reingard M. Nischik,2007 Beginning in the 1890s reaching its first full realization by modernist writers in the 1920s and brought to its heyday during the Canadian Renaissance starting in the 1960s the short story has become Canada s flagship genre It continues to attract the country s most accomplished and innovative writers today among them Margaret Atwood Mavis Gallant Alice Munro Carol Shields and many others Yet in contrast to the stature and popularity of the genre and the writers who partake in it surprisingly little literary criticism and theory has been devoted to the Canadian short story This collection redresses that imbalance by providing the first collection of critical interpretations of a range of thirty well known and often anthologized Canadian short stories from the genre's beginnings through the twentieth century. A historical survey of the genre introduces the volume and a timeline comparing the genre's development in Canada, the US and Great Britain via representative examples completes it. The collection is geared both to specialists in and to students of Canadian literature. For the latter it is of particular benefit that the volume provides not only a collection of interpretations but a comprehensive introduction to the history of the Canadian short story. Reingard M Nischik is professor and chair of American Literature at the University of Constance, Germany.

John Updike Jack De Bellis, Michael Broomfield, 2007. This definitive guide to materials by and about this prolific American author consists of a printed first volume and a second volume on CD-ROM. The A and B sections of Volume I concern separately printed works by Updike and books to which he has contributed. The volume also features over 500 grayscale images of book covers, jackets, broadsides and many seldom seen items. It includes comprehensive listings of Updike's short fiction, poems, articles, essays and reviews, as well as extensive documentation of letters, speeches, dramatic works, manuscripts, interviews and blurbs. Volume II contains entries for material about Updike and his work, reviews, commentary and theses, several appendices, media appearances, work read by others, works in translation, exhibits and catalogs, and full color versions of images appearing in the printed volume.

Twentieth Century Short Stories Sylvia Chatfield Bates, 1933. Brief biographical sketches of the authors included.

The Best French Short Stories of 1923/24-1926/27 and The Yearbook of the French Short Story, 1926.

Whodunit? Rosemary Herbert, 2003-05-08. Who populates the pages of crime and mystery writing? Who are the characters we willingly follow into the mystery genre's uneasy imaginative territory? And who created those characters in the first place? What life experience and expertise informs their work? What are the sources of their themes, regional accents and even the axes that some grind? Why do some wish to give us a good laugh while others seem hell bent on making us shudder? Whodunit answers these questions and more. Here mystery expert Rosemary Herbert brings together enlightening and entertaining information on hundreds of classic and contemporary characters and authors. Some such as P. D. James, Ian Rankin, Sherlock Holmes and Kinsey Millhone appear in individual entries. Still more keep company in articles about characters we admire such as the Clerical Sleuth and in pieces about those we love to hate including the Femme Fatale and Con Artist. There is even an article on a figure that haunts so many great works of mystery: The Corpse Drawing on the Edgar Award nominated volume The Oxford Companion to Crime Mystery Writing. Herbert adds 101 new entries on the hottest new names in works ranging from puzzling whodunits to chilling crime novels.
