Couplings To The Khyber:

Couplings to the Khyber P. S. A. Berridge, 1969 A Concise History of Afghanistan in 25 Volumes Hamid Wahed Alikuzai, 2013-10-10 Afghanistan Literature is Worlds greatest and richest without Afghan Literature no European German French Spanish or English Literature would exist today The Vedas Zoroastrian and Buddhist among the oldest known Literature of Afghanistan originating from the Great capital of Bactria present day Balkh and Aria present day Herat Sanskrit is the reference to the original history of Afghanistan The Saxon Europeans influence during the Great Games of the mid nineteenth century affected the Afghan language religion and Territories size which previously had extended from India to North Africa at 2 6 million square kilometers The Great Games continued at any cost evolving into present day conflicts of 2013

Design, Technology and Communication in the British Empire, 1830-1914 Annie Tindley, Andrew Wodehouse, 2016-11-30 This book is an innovative interdisciplinary study of the nature of design as a form of communication within and across Britain and its empire in the long nineteenth century In this period Britain had developed from the world s first industrial nation into the Workshop of the World but how were technological innovations translated and communicated across the imperial territories How were designs turned into reality This book explores these themes incorporating archival case study technologies such as trains sugar manufacture and agricultural technologies Using a four part framework we firstly examine the identification of innovation opportunities and how these translated to engineering specifications The realization of conceptual designs through collaboration and their subsequent manufacture and distribution as finished products are then reviewed Using the authors expertise in the fields of historical and design engineering this study contributes real world case studies to design theory

Imperial Engineers Richard Hornsey, 2022-03-31 Established in 1871 on the outskirts of London the Royal Indian Engineering College at Coopers Hill was arguably the first engineering school in Britain For thirty five years the college helped staff the government institutions of British India responsible for the railways irrigation systems telegraph network and forests Founded to meet the high demand for engineers in that country it was closed thirty five years later because its educational innovations had been surpassed by Britain s universities on both occasions against the wishes of the Government of India Imperial Engineers offers a complete history of the Royal Indian Engineering College Drawing on the diaries of graduates working in India the college magazine student and alumni periodicals and other archival documents Richard Hornsey details why the college was established and how the students education prepared them for their work Illustrating the impact of the college and its graduates in India and beyond Imperial Engineers illuminates the personal and professional experiences of British men in India as well as the transformation of engineering education at a time of social and technological change

Hill Railways of the Indian Subcontinent Richard Wallace, 2021-02-22 This book describes seven branch lines which climbed into the mountain ranges that span the length and breadth of the countries of India and Pakistan Some like the Darjeeling Himalayan are well known but others like the Zhob

Valley Khyber Pass and Kangra Valley lines are less so Several of these railways were also the last bastions of steam operation in the sub continent Unsurprisingly as hill railways most of them reached remarkable heights many using ingenious feats of engineering to assist their climb into seemingly impenetrable terrain These lines served diverse locations each with its own characteristics from the hostile territories of the North West Frontier along the spectacular foothills of the Himalayas skirting the Western Ghats of the Deccan down to the gentle rolling landscape of the Nilgiris or Blue Hills of South India The book gives the histories of the seven hill railways including summaries of their operations and routes Maps and gradient charts for all seven railway lines are given as well as listings of the locomotives operating the hill railways

At the Margins of Empire Lipokmar Dzüvichü, Manjeet Baruah, 2025-05-26 Empire building in British India was inseparably tied to the processes of frontier making and the creation of boundaries Through a range of complex practices and developments the constitution of these spaces took shape at various historical conjunctures The making of these spaces was also shaped by a variety of imperial concerns including local and global processes connections and entanglements Focusing on the period between the 19th and the early 20th centuries this book looks at how the dynamics of frontier and boundary creation were shaped by a variety of agents institutions infrastructure and technologies events economy travel forms of representation and imperial rivalries The role of capital war and violence was also intrinsic to the creation of such spaces Further societies in these spaces responded to these processes in various ways The book examines how they negotiated and mediated these complex developments of modern space making in multiple ways at the margins of empire Part of the Empire and Frontiers series this book will be of interest to researchers and readers of history anthropology cultural studies social and cultural history frontiers boundaries and borderland studies Himalayan studies and studies of commodities and circulations

India and the Silk Roads Jagjeet Lally, 2022-05-01 This book brings to life the world of caravan trade constituting not only merchants but also pilgrims pastoralists and mercenaries flows not only of goods credit and money but also of ideas secret intelligence and fighting power Contrary to the view that the ages of sail and steam rendered obsolete these more archaic forms of overland connectivity Jagjeet Lally demonstrates how the annual transhumance between North India and the Central Asian steppe was critical to the production and exercise of political power into the nineteenth century Central to this narrative is the waning of the Mughal Empire and the emergence in the mid eighteenth century of a new Afghan kingdom whose leaders drew their power from the financial flows and force of arms moving through the networks of caravan trade and who thus patronised the continued traffic between India and inland Eurasia India and the Silk Roads is a global history of a continental interior the first to comprehensively examine the textual and material traces of caravan trade in the age of empires Lally tells a story resonating with our own times as China's Belt and Road Initiative once again transforms life across Eurasia
